

CATHEDRAL.

Archbishop Quigley visited Mrs. Norman of 116 Campbell St., last week.

Last Monday evening the Men's Sodality held a social in Cathedral hall.

The next regular meeting of the Sodality will be held Sunday evening.

The tenth annual reunion of the Cathedral School Association will be held Tuesday, May 19th in Cathedral Hall. All former pupils of the school are welcome.

The Dramatic Circle announces that on Friday evening, May 15th they will present the popular Irish drama "Eileen Oge" in the Cathedral Hall.

On Thursday, May 28th, at 8 o'clock the children will receive their first communion.

On Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock from Lady Chapel the funeral of Dennis Ryan of 106 Magne St., was held.

Cook Opera House.

Manager J. H. Moore, of the Cook Opera House, has been in Rochester all week making final arrangements for the appearance of the famous Aborn Opera Company at the Cook for a summer run. The company of 50 principals and chorus will open the season Monday night next in "Robin Hood," the masterpiece of that renowned composer, Reginald DeKoven, and the equally famous librettist, Harry B. Smith.

In the approaching series of operatic productions, the prices for seats will remain at the popular scale, and matinees will be given four times every week: Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays, excepting for the opening week, when only three matinees will be given, and the opera season will be inaugurated Monday night, instead of the afternoon. The offering will be changed each week, and as the Aborns operate a dozen opera companies in other cities, their plan permits them to change the cast partially from time to time to fit the various operas more perfectly, bringing artists here from their other companies for special weeks.

National Theater.

"The Marriage of William Ashby," the dramatization of Mrs. Humphrey Ward's novel, has been chosen by Miss Bonstelle for her closing week at the National Theater, when this popular player will be seen in the semi-hippic role of Lady Kitty Bristol. The story is familiar to all playgoers and in its dramatized form was one of the most brilliant successes of the London season. The dramatization sticks closely to the original book and the presentation of this play is especially timely, for Mrs. Humphrey Ward, now in America, is quite the literary lion of the hour. Miss Bonstelle and her splendid company may be relied upon to make the best of the endless opportunities in this brilliant play. The success of her opening performance in Rochester was but the forerunner of a series of triumphs, and the seat sale for her second and last week in Rochester has been immense.
