ST. JOSEPH'S.

The C. Y. M. A. minstrels which was a grand success when played last week was repeated on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the tower fund. There was a large audience present, attracted not only by the worth of the cause, but also by the excellence of the performance. Those who took part were uniformly good and all worked hard to achieve a grand success. The singing of the chorus and the work of the end men was exceptionally good and there was hardly a moment from the rise of the curtain on the grand first part until the finish of the after-piece which concluded the entertainment when there was not a thing doing. Those who attended the show felt amply repaid for their efforts and for the slight expenditure of money. It is a cause for congratulation that the C. Y. M. A. has become an annual affair.

Linoleum: an Economy

Most progressive housekeepers have already learned that it is a saving to cover their kitchen, pantry and bathroom floors with a good quality of linoleum, probably of the inlaid variety, in which the pattern goes entirely through the fabric. We make a specialty of linoleums from the best-known manufacturers at home and abroad, and our assortment of patterns is remarkably extensive, even for so large a store. As linoleum must be laid exactly right in order to yield the best results in looks and wear, we employ only workmen who are thoroughly proficient. Our prices and qualities show that our values are unrivaled. Howe & Rogers Co.
