SECOND WEEK AT CATHOLIC Five Minute Sermon
SUMMER SCHOOL.

Chif Haven: July 10, 1908
Record-Breaking Week.

Admitted on every hand the ablest and the most successful opening week in the history of the Champlain Association for the summer school...

Sunday always a day of rest on sacraments. At 10 o'clock the assembly ground was open from without and in from within...

The fair, to be held at the school on Monday evening, July 13, will be the most successful and the most profitable yet held...

The Baker Theatre next week the play "The Price of Gold's Ave Maria" with Miss Helene McGrath in the leading role...

The series of morning lectures was inaugurated on Monday, by Miss Helene McGrath of New York, a traveller to the out-of-the-way corners of the globe...

The recitals of James Francis O'Donnell in "The Sign of the Cross" and Tennyson's beautiful story of Enoch Arden, were met cordially received...

Opening with the children's dances, the weekly hop was held at the Champlain Club on Wednesday night, the music being furnished by Greene's Orchestra.

Miss Mady Hart pleasantly entertained the newly organized Ladies Sewing Circle on the Chapel lawn Thursday afternoon.

The College Camp, a happy cross between a "step lively" and "don't worry" is one of the most popular places on the grounds.

Rev. F. X. Brady, S. J., rector of St. Ignace Church, Baltimore, has been appointed rector of Loyola College, that city, succeeding Rev. W. J. pulled off this evening. With the Rev. did of Mr. Harrington a splendid entertainment, full of catchy in recitations, sketches and songs, was presented.

Things are beginning to look up in golfing circles. The first tournament of the season was played on July Fourth. Much interest is being manifested in the tournaments this year, and a sharp, though friendly contest for the McCall Challenge Cup is assured.

Splendid advice is this from "Church Progress": The Catholic isolated from priest, and it regularly, and the whole situation is much theorizing. Put a good Catholic paper in his hands and get him to read it regularly, and the whole situation is solved.
