

To Our Subscribers
Collectors will call next week.
Kindly be prepared to pay them.

CITY PARISH NEWS

Interesting Budget of Happenings
Gathered by Our City Reporters

SS. PETER & PAUL'S.

On Tuesday evening of this week the Young Ladies' Sodality of SS. Peter and Paul's Church held its first trolley party. In spite of the rain, ninety-five girls, all members of the Sodality, were conveyed in chartered cars to Windsor Hotel where an enjoyable evening was spent in singing, dancing and games. Members of the Sodality furnished music which was evidently greatly appreciated. Singing on the cars was made a special feature of the evening's entertainment. This outing will long be remembered by the Sodality, as it was their first attempt under their new pastor, Rev. J. Emil Gettell, Ph. D., who is much interested in the work of the Sodality. The girls were greatly pleased to have with them Rev. Dr. Andrew E. Breen and their newly appointed assistant, Rev. F. William Stauder.

On Wednesday morning a month's kind requiem mass was celebrated for Rev. Dr. Sinclair.

On Saturday morning a high mass was celebrated for the members of the Woman's Society.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Society will take place Sunday after Vespers.

The members of Ladies Auxiliary, 44, will celebrate the tenth anniversary Wednesday evening, July 29th, by having a trolley party to Charlotte where dinner will be served at 7.30. All members are expected to attend, and friends may be invited. All who intend going will notify the secretary, or any of the committee.

ST. BRIDGET'S.

Prayers were requested Sunday for Edward Sullivan.

A requiem mass was celebrated Monday at 7.30 a. m. for Miss May Riley.

Sunday will be communion day for the men and boys of the parish.

The Advisory Senate, L. C. B. A., will meet next Monday evening.

Miss Margaret Duffy of Catherine Street, is spending her vacation at Montreal and Quebec. She will also visit the shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre.

Mrs. Philip Golding and niece, Miss Katherine Callahan of Denver, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Golding of Gordon Park, returned to their home this week.

Miss Mary Harrigan of No. 7 Durbin Street, has left for a prolonged visit in the Lake region of Minnesota and will return by way of the Great Lakes in September.

The remains of Mrs. M. A. Skinner were brought from Elmira Thursday and interred in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Mrs. Skinner was a former member of this parish.

HOLY REDEEMER.

Saturday solemn high mass will be celebrated in honor of St. Jacob, it being the Saint's day of Rev. Father Staub. We extend our hearty congratulations.

Mr. Conrad Kalmbacher and daughter Teresa, of Alphonse Street, are at Baltimore, Md., visiting Sr. M. Conrada, and Sr. M. Redempta, at the Notre Dame Convent, Asquith Street.

Rev. Father Kunz, is taking a vacation trip through Canada, he will also visit the shrine of St. Anne, at Montreal, Quebec.

The Catholic Men's Association held a very successful outing at Bay View Thursday. The affair was under the management of Lewis Zwierlein, Philip Smith, George Kress, Martin Weber, William Warth and Associate sports.

The school children gave a delightful entertainment on Friday to Rev. Father Staub in honor of his feast day.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

The third quarterly pew rent is due. The diagrams will be given out next Sunday.

Requiem masses this week for Mrs. Wahl, Mr. Spielman, Mrs. Hoffman, Julia May.

The trolley ride given last Monday evening was a grand success.

It was announced Sunday that the Woman's Sodality will have no more meetings until September.

The members of the choir, ushers and collectors held their annual outing last Tuesday at Grand View Beach.

The bans of matrimony were announced Sunday between Mr. George Moore and Miss Gertrude Zenkel.

The funeral of Miss Julia May took place last Saturday morning. She was a member of the Young Ladies' Sodality.

The Young Ladies' Sodality will have their monthly meeting Sunday afternoon after Vespers.

ST. JOSEPH'S.

Sunday will be monthly communion day for the married men of the Holy Family and for the girls of the Sunday School.

Next Wednesday is the day set for the annual picnic of the orphans. The members of the Orphan Board and various parishioners are making elaborate preparations to insure a good time for the little. The outing will be held at Bay View and everything possible will be done to make things pleasant for those who attend. Many of the members of the congregation by their presence at this outing make it assume the nature of a parish affair. All are invited. Don't forget the place and date. At Bay View, next Wednesday.

The annual outing of the C. Y. M. A. was held last Wednesday at Bay View. Those present had a good time.

St. Mary's.

The funeral of Paul F. Hughes, 19 years of age, who died last Sunday at his home, 36 Lenox Street, took place from St. Monica's Church on Tuesday morning at 9.30 o'clock. He was a former member of St. Mary's parish and is survived by his mother, two brothers and three sisters.

Miss Irene McNulty of Pittsburgh, and Miss Margaret McNulty of this city are spending a few weeks at Avon in New Jersey.

Sunday is communion Sunday for the men and boys of the parish.

Earle Dady, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, is recovering rapidly.

Auburn, N. Y.

The congregation of St. Mary's Church are planning on a big lawn fete to take place on the church lot in State Street for three days next month. The event will be held for the benefit of the building fund of the church which is being collected for the erection of the new Orphan Asylum. The lawn fete will be something elaborate and will surpass anything ever given by this church. Supper will be served each evening. Dancing and games will form part of the entertainment. Tickets have been placed on sale.

On Tuesday morning at the Holy Family Church a quiet wedding took place. The contracting parties were former State Treasurer Lawrence Fitzgerald of Cortland and Miss Kathryn Quinlan of this city. The couple were attended by Miss Anna Quinlan and Frank Shields who in turn were also married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. Hickey, pastor of the church. The two newly married couples left after a wedding breakfast for an extended trip in Atlantic City, from which place Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald will leave for a trip abroad.

Rev. William Mulhern, pastor of the St. Mary's Church, is rapidly recovering from the effect of a serious fall which he took early in the week while supervising some repair work on his school.

Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus, are making great preparations for the annual outing of the order which will be held on Ten Mile Point next month for the benefit of the building fund of the Auburn Asylum. One of the largest attendance of an outing ever held in the city is looked forward to by the committee.

The new Italian church will be blessed by Bishop Hickey on next Sunday when the corner stone will be laid. The church is rapidly being completed and it is expected that the first mass will be said in the church about the middle of September.

The pastor, Rev. Father Robatti, is making great progress in his work in this city. Several visiting priests from out of the city will take part in the blessing of the church.

The several schools of the city are being put in shape for the opening of the school session next fall.

The choirs of the city churches are planning on their annual outings which are held each year. The outings this year promises to outdo ones held in past years.

Drink in Switzerland.

One never sees a boisterously drunk person in a Swiss town, except in the tourist season, and then the offender invariably proves to be a foreigner.

Voting in Belgium.

Married men of Belgium have two votes, and the single ones only one. Priests and some other privileged persons have three.

Making of Wine.

Grapes are squeezed six times in making champagne, yielding wine of different qualities.

Some of the ice fields of Greenland are said to be a mile and a half in thickness.

Korean bachelors wear skirts and are not promoted to trousers until they marry.

Around the Globe

Catholic News From Many Places.

Around the Globe.

The corner-stone of the new Cathedral at St. Louis, Mo., will be laid on Oct. 18th. As soon as conditions will permit, Archbishop Glennon will turn his attention to the building of a new seminary, a tract of sixty-five acres of high ground, situated one mile and a half west of Clayton, the county seat of St. Louis County, having been purchased by the seminary board for this purpose.

M. Jacques Blumenthal, composer and pianist to the late Queen Victoria of England, has left a bequest of $5,500 to the Archbishop of Westminster for the benefit of Catholic educational institutions in England and other purposes. There are various other bequests to Catholic institutions.

Very Rev. A. J. Zielenbach, C. S. S., formerly provincial of his order in the United States, and now a consultant to the superior general, is visiting the houses in Africa.

The Society of the Divine Word has recently sent out from Steyl, Holland, fifty-three priests and twenty-six brothers and sisters of the order to the missions of China, Japan, Brazil, the United States and other countries.

Rt. Rev. Paul Eugene Roy, who has been consecrated Auxiliary Bishop of Quebec, Can., is one of a family of 20, 15 of whom are living and four of whom are priests.

Judge Wallace of the Board of United States General Appraisers, has decided that marble statuary imported for presentation to Catholic churches is entitled to free entry.

Recently Bishop Cusack administered confirmation to a class of 180 at the Church of St. Benedict the Moor, New York. Half the class was made up of men and women who were recently baptized into the church.

The marriage which has been arranged between Dr. William T. Power of New York and Miss Esther Redmond, eldest daughter of John Redmond, M. P., will take place on July 18th at the Church of Our Lady of Victories, Kensington. The ceremony will take place at 9 o'clock in the morning and will be quite private, the immediate relatives of the bride and bridegroom only being present.

Count Albert de Mun has issued an appeal to the Catholics of France for the promotion of a religious revival. He says that only by social action can the church in France recover contact with the people. Ever since the passing of the Jules Ferry education laws, the French masses have become more and more estranged from the church, and they are now so organized that they cannot be induced to listen forthwith to religious discourses.

The Society of the Holy Spirit, an admirable but little known organization with headquarters in New Orleans, has just issued its twenty-sixth annual report. From this we learn that the object of the society is to disseminate devotion to the Holy Ghost and to spread the knowledge of Catholic truth. It distributes free Catholic books and literature, aids priests engaged in poor country missions and helps free Catholic schools in similar localities. In twenty-one years it has paid out over $100,000, and distributed between two and three million books, tracts, etc. A society doing such good work with little advertisement deserves encouragement and a more general membership.

Washington, July 2.—Of seven clergymen who were appointed today as chaplains in the army four are Catholic priests, namely:

Rev. Frederick L. Kunnecke, of Maryland, Coast Artillery Corps.

Rev. Edward R. Chase, of Maine, Fifth Cavalry.

Rev. Lawrence L. Denning, of Ohio, Coast Artillery Corps.

Rev. Michael G. Doran, of New York.

The appointment of four Catholics to three Protestant was occasioned by the fact that there have been fewer appointments and fewer candidates from the Catholic Church for some time. The War Department carefully aims to proportion the appointments so that about one-third shall be Catholics and the remaining two-thirds shall about equally represent the leading Protestant churches.

Father Doran has not yet been assigned to duty.

New York Catholic charities benefit to the extent of $63,000 by the will of Thomas Cunningham, founder of the T. Cunningham Company, stevedores, who left an estate valued at about $1,000,000. The bequests are $25,000 to Right Rev. John Edwards, rector of St. Joseph's, to be used as Mgr. Edwards may deem fit; $10,000 to Archbishop Farley, to support and educate two candidates for the priesthood at St. Joseph's Seminary, Dunwoodie, or one at St. Joseph's and the other at the Catho-

McCurdy & Norwell Co.

The Bargain Store

A Clearance Sale of Refrigerators

All of the floor samples from which we have been selling Refrigerators this season have been marked down for this sale. Most of them are the celebrated White Mountain make—leaders in high-class Refrigerators everywhere. Their excellent qualities are so well known that we need not emphasize that feature at this time.

No samples reserved. So you may buy stone-lined, enameled, or galvanized lined Refrigerators at a considerable saving from regular. All sizes included—large, medium and small. Few great big bargain chance which everyone ought to take advantage of.

$10.75 Refrigerators at $8.60

12.00 Refrigerators at 9.60

14.95 Refrigerators at 11.95

17.95 Refrigerators at 14.25

21.50 Refrigerators at 17.25

$25 Refrigerators at $20

27 Refrigerators at 21.60

30 Refrigerators at 24

35 Refrigerators at 28

45 Refrigerators at 36

McCurdy & Norwell Company

McCurdy & Norwell Company, 110-100 to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, and $2,000 to each of the following: St. Francis Hospital, House of the Good Shepherd, Little Sisters of the Poor, Sisters of the Divine Compassion, White Plains; Corpus Christi Monastery, Hunt's Point; New York Mothers' Home, Sisters of Maria du Christ, Little Sisters of the Assumption and St. Joseph's Home for Consumptives.

The Cumberland

MEAT MARKET

H. F. SCHEUTZOW, Prop.

Dealer in
Choice Meats

and Poultry

Vegetables in Season

Bell Phone 3046-R Main

Rochester Phone 1873

211 North Street

For VACATION DAYS

YOU'LL NEED

Thermometers,
Barometers,
Field Glasses,
Kodaks,
Colored Eyeglasses
and Spectacles,
Automobile Goggles

Your Eyeglasses Adjusted
Examination for new glasses
See to these errands, Now

E. E. BAUSCH & SON

Opticians Optometrists

6 MAIN STREET EAST

Seasonable Things,

Reasonable Prices.

SPONGES,
CHAMOIS SKINS,
BRUSHES,
DUSTERS,
POLISHES,
STAINS,
ENAMELS.

BARNARD,
PORTER
& VIAL

15-17-19

N. Water St.

Phone 695

An ideal summer resort in this climate is a little thing which you can call up "49"

America's Greatest Livery Tally-Ho seating 50, or a trap for this and you.

Rochester Phone 672

E. C. SYKES

Electrical Contractor and Locksmith

Electrical Novelties

Inverted Gas Burners

21 Front St. Rochester, N.Y.

Catalogue free. Bring your trouble to us.

SANITARY SUCTION CLEANING COMPANY

Drake, Schoenover & Hayden

We can clean your Carpets, Rugs, and complete House furnishings at your home without removal cheaper and satisfactory than any method in the world. Let us give you an estimate. Office: 524 Granite Bldg. Rochester, N.Y. Bell Phone Main 400. Rock Phone 400.

Nolan & McLaughlin

Weekly Payment Jeweler

Are now located at 197 Main St. East

opposite Glenny's

Watches, Diamonds, Clocks

Jewelry, Silverware

Society Plan

Lewis Edelmann

Dealer in

ANTHRACITE COAL

Telephone 678
88 Portland Avenue
Near N.Y.C. & N.E.R.
Prompt attention given to all orders.

Canal and Barge Line for Open Orders

HENRY L. JESSERER

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in SCRANTON, LEHIGH, D. & H. P. & R.

Anthracite COAL

Rochester 678
Bell 588 E. Main

Lawn Mowers

Sharpened and Ground

Called for and Delivered

Home Phone 400

When in Trouble

With your Locks, Keys or Electric Bells consult the man who knows how to fix them

E. Bertelsen. 22 Front St.

JOHN F. MOLONEY

Dry Goods and Notions

Men's and Boy's Underwear from 50c to $1.00
Hosiery 10c to 25c cotton, wool and cashmere
Ladies and Childrens underwear, 20c to $1.00
Baby bonnets, boys sweaters, mufflers, caps, gloves, etc.
Bell Phone 1744-L Main

John H. McAnarney

(Successor to O'Quinn & McAnarney)

Fire, Plate Glass, Boiler and Elevator Insurance
Fidelity Bonds for Administrators, Executors, Trustees, etc.
Plumbers and all kinds of Copper and Sheet Metal Work
Office—101 and 103 Ellwanger & Berry Bldg. Rochester, N.Y.

PETER REINSCHMIDT

Manufacturer of

Bowling Alley Balls and Pins

Counters, Wall Cases, Shelving, Fine Cabinet Work in Oak

183 N. WATER ST.

Home Phone 1887

W. Haubner, Manager Wood Working Department

JOHN M. REDDINGTON

Lehigh Valley COAL

Brightest Cleanest, Best

9 West Main Street

Send us your Job