ST. JOSEPH'S.
Sunday will be monthly communion and conference day for the young men of the Holy Family.

Plans are being made for a grand mass meeting of Catholics of this city to be held in the parish hall on Sunday evening immediately following the feast of the Immaculate Conception. The affair will be given under the auspices of the Rochester Diocesan Federation of Catholic Societies and it is planned to make it surpass any similar function ever held in the city. Speakers will be brought from other cities not only to tell the purposes of the organization, but also of the many glories of the reign of the present Pope Pius X, in whose honor the meeting will be held.

Next Sunday will be monthly communion and conference day for the married men of the Holy Family.

Next Sunday will also be monthly communion day for the girls of the Sunday school.

ST. MARY'S.
The second annual banquet of the Confraternity of Mary was held Monday evening at the Whitcomb House and was an elaborate affair. One hundred and eighty young ladies were present wearing dainty gowns and when seated around the long tables which were decorated with pink and white carnations the scene was an attractive one. The visiting guests were Rev. Lewis Edleman who established this confraternity five years ago, and Rev. N. A. Conway, Chaplain of Elmira Reformatory. Seated at this table were Rev. William Gleeson, Rev. Joseph S. Cameron, and Rev. E. A. Rawlinson.

The programme, which was in charge of Miss Essie Trant and Miss Cecelia Carey, was very cleverly planned and arranged. Miss Mary F. Loughney was toastmistress and filled her position well. The following programme of toasts, made up of much wit and wisdom was greatly enjoyed by those present: Introduction, Miss Mary D. Lewis; "Our Pastor," Miss Katherine Huddy; "The Catholic Young Woman," Miss Ella T. Dowling; "Juniors of the C. of M.," Miss Dorothy Marakle; "The Confraternity," Miss Esther Short. Addresses by Rev. William Gleeson, Rev. E. Rawlinson and Rev. J. Cameron.

The excellent music by violin and piano was furnished by Dolores Caring and Beth Rogers. Many original songs set to familiar airs added spice to the musical programme.

The officers of the Confraternity are as follows: Spiritual Adviser, Rev. E. A. Rawlinson; Pres. Mary D. Lewis; Vice President, Mary F. Loughney; Secretary, Sadie J. Dove; Treasurer, Anna Keough; Librarians, Elizabeth J. Kennedy and Nora Connor; Press Correspondent, Clara O'Brien; Executive Committee, Marne McCourt, Kathryn McHugh, Monica Keough, Grace Attridge, and Elizabeth Fitzsimmons.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Miller took place from the residence of her daughter Mrs. Chas. Zimmer, 92 Arnes St., Saturday morning at 8:30 from the house and 9 o'clock from the church.

Notice to R. E. I. Alumni.
All former students of the Rochester Business Institute, wherever located, who have not yet received invitations to attend the 45th anniversary alumni banquet, to be held Saturday evening, November 21st, will greatly assist the officers of the Alumni Association if they will send their present addresses at once to the registrar, Rochester Business Institute.

On account of many changes in both names and addresses, the task of securing the correct addresses of a large number of former students of the school, even those of quite recent date, is impossible without this co-operation and assistance. As fast as the addresses come in they will be placed in the new card register, opened April 7th 1908, and invitations to the banquet will be sent by return mail. An immediate response to this request is very important.
