Catholic deaf mutes of the city to the number of 75 at a meeting held recently in St. Joseph's Parish Hall on Franklin st. formed an organization, "The Epheta Society," for the temporal and spiritual welfare of its members. Rev. Wm. Kessel, C. S. S. R. rector of the church, and his assistant, Rev. A. Engelhardt are the spiritual advisers.

This is the first organization of this character ever in Rochester and it is exciting a large amount of interest. Bishop Hekey has expressed himself as being gratified by the great success achieved by the two priests mentioned in their efforts to care for those afflicted Catholics.

A large amount of labor has been expended by Father Kessel and Father Engelhardt in preparing for this work. Several months ago they started learning the manual language and the host of signs necessary for rapid expression of thought without the use of words.

Some few deaf mutes became interested and these in turn brought others, so that at present every second Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock a large number gather in the parish hall. After a prayer by one of the priests there is a religious instruction, given and questions are answered, which are propounded by those present.

Last Thursday evening the members of the newly formed Epheta Society held a social in the basement of the school building. The evening was spent playing games, enjoying refreshments and becoming acquainted. Rev. A. Engelhardt made an address of welcome in the sign language.

A Connoisseur's Opinion of Wisner's Display of Pickard's China

A Rochester woman, who has visited nearly all the famous potteries of Europe, says of the exhibit from the Pickard Studios of Chicago, on display this week at Wisner's: "For original designs, beautiful shapes, rich gold work and harmonious coloring, nothing that I have seen in Europe or America will compare with Pickard's hand-painted china. I am at a loss to know how such exquisitely beautiful creations be can sold at such low prices. For amateur work that in no way compares with these pieces from the Pickard Studios, I have paid twice as much."

Robert Thomson.
On Monday night next and continuing all week Vaughan Glaser and his company at the Baker theatre, will present Robert Edson's comedy drama by Wm. C. Demille, "Strongheart". The title role of Strongheart is none other than a full blooded North American Indian, who is taking a post-graduate course at Columbia. The scenes are bristling with comic detail. The varying types of collegiate characters are neatly drawn and the incident in the training quarters between the heroes of the big football game is stirring in its youthful fervor. The dialogue is sincere and direct and the whole effect one of genuine dramatic merit. To make the play as realistic as possible Mr. Glaser has engaged several members of the University of Rochester football team to participate in the big football scene in the second act. Regular matinees will be given on Tuesday Thursday and Saturday with evening prices prevailing Thanksgiving afternoon.

Cook Opera House.

Emmett Corrigan, an actor of established reputation, will succeed Robert Hilliard as the headline attraction at Cook Opera House next week. Mr. Corrigan, and his capable company, will offer a new playlet, called "His Last Performance," which is said to give him a wider scope for the display of his talent than any playlet he has appeared in. Gillett's animal actors, wonderful monkeys and dogs, will engage in a little comedy drama all by themselves, with nobody on the stage to direct their efforts. The Willy Pantser troupe; of European acrobats is another fine attraction for Cook patrons. Among the other standard acts are: the Adleman quartette, European musical act; Quinlan and Mack, in "The Traveling Dentist"; Madge Fox, singing comedienne; Milt Wood, the dancer with the chair; Hill, Cherry and Hill, comedy cyclists; and the Mooreoscope pictures.

In the Men's Clothing Store.

Only a few days ago a store customer was heard to remark: "I didn't know you had a Clothing Department here." He had just caught sight of the large sign on the Third floor, reading "Men's Clothing Department."

Here one of many men in Rochester who are not aware that there is a full fledged Clothing store for men on the Third floor here.

We are endeavoring to impress upon the minds of the public that this is a Men's store—not merely a store for women—and that the man who dresses well, wishes to appear stylishly attired, will find all the necessary articles right here in this store with one single exception—the hat.

For the young man, the college student, and the school boy, there are all the latest fashion's fashions, suits and overcoats. For the business man, who prefers the more conservative styles, we are thoroughly prepared.

Like all departments of this store, we are here to serve you to your satisfaction, to give you value received for every dollar paid us.

We invite you to come in and get acquainted with the Clothing department. We want you to see the place and know just where to find us when you are in need of clothes.

Suits, $10 to $25.
Overcoats, $8 to $28.
Raincoats, $10 to $17.
