Victor Talking Machines and Edison Phonographs.

It is the province of this announcement not to dwell upon the character of the two instruments—the Victor Talking Machine and Edison Phonograph—that is already established, but to make it clear, that hereafter these sound producing instruments in every type, together with all records and supplies for them, will be obtainable in this store.

A great many prefer to buy other things here. Why then should they not rather come here for Talking Machine and Phonograph Supplies?

In the basement, almost directly in front of the East Stairway, where the Toy store used to be, the new department is located. Perhaps we might better say, right next to the Music store.

We shall have a great deal more to tell you of these matters as the days go by.
