The PROMISE

By OTTO EDWARD.

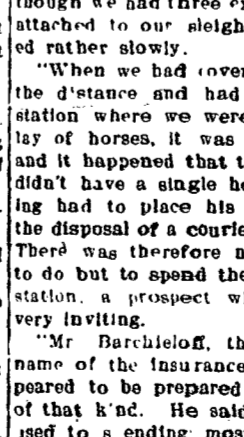

"You don't mean to say, Prince Orloff that you don't intend to try your luck at Trenez at Quarante or Roulette?"

"I suppose it is impossible to be at Monte Carlo and not to talk of gambling," he said.

"I saw myself dishonored, for, poor as I was, I could never think of paying back such an amount."

"Well, what's on the bill of fare to-day?" inquired the genial drummer.
