VORACIOUS CANARIES. Appetite of a Bird Much Greater Than Average Man. When an old-fashioned hostess urges her guests to eat, after the conventional manner of showing hospitality, and remarks, "Why, you haven't the appetite of a bird!" she really speaks the truth, though she does not intend to.

The Hapsburg Pigeon and the Pile. Under the eaves of an old stable in a blacksmith shop on Tenth street near Herkese a large flock of pigeons have congregated for years. In clear weather it is a pleasing sight to see the beautiful birds wheeling and curving through the air, and finally alighting on the ridge-pole—a line of blue and white moving, harmonious figures.

An Editor's Tip to Shabby Husband. A wife who loves her husband will not object to cutting his hair every week or two. Instead of every two or three months. Any man can learn to shave himself. A box of blacking sets a man's hair for months.

Golf Causes Deafness. The observant cannot have failed to notice during the last few years a remarkable increase in the use by persons of all ages and classes of ear-trumpets and other contrivances to assist the sense of hearing.

To Follow His Father. It is stated that as soon as Prince Edward of Wales, who is now in his tenth year, is old enough, he will be entered as a cadet at the new Royal Naval College, Osborne, which was opened by the king during last August week at Cowes.

Another doctor attributed semi-deafness to falling to protect the ear while driving or motoring. One medical man adduced a strange cause for deafness in stating that the game of hockey produced this abnormality. This was entirely due to the nervous reflex action upon the complicated nerve plexus around the ear.
