Cook Opera House.

Vaudeville of the sort that makes one believe that life in Rochester is worth living will be seen at the Cook Opera House next week. Will M. Cressy and Blanche Dayne, vaudeville's most popular players, supported by Charles Burns and Knott A. Booth, will present "The Wyoming Whoop," Mr. Cressy's latest and biggest comedy. "The Gainsboro Girl" (Marie Loose Brackman) will be the special feature attraction on the bill, appearing in her striking singing novelty. The Asahi troupe of Japanese magician and acrobats, the favorite Hebrew comedians Hoey and Lee, whose sole mission is to make people laugh, the Nicholas sisters, Geiger and Walters, in their musical novelty; the Brothers Damm in wonderful feats of strength and agility, and the Moocroscope pictures will add materially to the wealth of the entertainment.

Baker Theater.

"Forest Lovers", the dramatization of Maurice Hewlett's famous romance of that name, will be the bill for next week at the Baker theatre by Miss Jessie Bonstelle and her company. Bertha Galland has played it with great success in New York, but the production was not seen in Rochester and Miss Bonstelle had some difficulty in obtaining the rights. Those who like a romantic story, with a touch of mysticism and plenty of strenuous love making, hard fighting and brave deeds will enjoy this drama to the very uttermost, it is promised. Miss Bonstelle says it is better than Dorothy Vernon and immensels superior to most of the so-called romantic plays that are offered.

What is Good Macaroni?

The choicest macaroni is made only from the rich golden layer of the best American wheat, and a proportion of the whole is used exclusively in WOODCOCK MACARONI. The slender tubes are made by a special auxiliary process and put in germ proof, air-tight packages. WOODCOCK MACARONI contains four-fifths of the nutritionary elements to sustain daily life and health and is yet so light contains more nourishment than five packages ordinary macaroni. The taste tells. Order to-day. At grocers.
