with impunity because during the last few weeks we have noticed some pretty bad pictures on the South avenue billboards. These pictures are not needed and should not be permitted to insult decent-minded citizens and innocent children.

It is up to the city authorities to get busy again.

Education.

A great sight will be witnessed next July when the American Catholic Educational association will meet in Boston.

Upwards of 2,000 delegates, representing practically all the Catholic colleges, seminaries and other educational institutions of the country are expected to attend this convention.

Arrangements are in the hands of a committee headed by Vice-General Joseph G. Anderson, now in charge of the diocesan affairs during the absence of Archbishop O'Connell. The archbishop is expected to preside at the meetings of the association.

Business meetings of the convention will be held in the halls of Boston College, while the clubhouse of the Catholic Union of Boston will be made the center of the social gatherings.

A great public meeting will probably be held in Symphony Hall.

We Win Again.

Some time ago the Boston "American" had a contest on Lincoln, essays open to all pupils of public, parochial and Sunday schools. Two hundred of these essays were deemed worthy of prizes by the judges who were Secretary of State Olin, Rev. Edward E. Horton, (Protestant) and John F. Casey, headmaster of the English high school.

In the result the Catholic schools made a remarkable showing, according to the Boston "Republican."

Dr. Ehot, of Harvard, must have forgotten the descent of our Presidents when he opposed the intermarriage of different nationalities. Grover Cleveland, William McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt all who owned up to a large share of Irish blood and we must not take it for granted that they did this to catch votes.

Edward Payson Weston is another living example of the accuracy of Dr. Osler's famous theory.

Rev. Robert Burdette, formerly a newspaper humorist, in speaking of St. Paul and his missionary helpers said:

Of commentaries, revisions and re-revisions, self-pronouncing combinations in red-letters, editions with marginal index, limp backs and flap edges, they knew nothing. The Epistles hadn't got started yet. In fact, these expatriated disciples were themselves just beginning to collaborate in the writing of the book we are now studying. That isn't a bad way to "missionary" at home or abroad.

This "hot one" was handed recently to the Buffalo "Courier" a man's person, so it is lawful to resist him if he assaulted souls or troubled the State." and for that, one of his comparatively recent predecessors, Archbishop Kenrick, sixth in the line of Mr. Conner's blooded chickens Baltimore, who says of the Pope's that it grew in the fuzzy brain power that it "was given for some London penny-a-liner edification, not for destruction, if he uses it for love of domination (quod absit) scarcely will he meet with obedient populations."

Stop It.

For some time the city authorities kept the bill boards free of nasty and suggestive pictures.

We regret that they have relaxed their vigilance and allowed the theaters have, apparently, reached the conclusion that they may offend public decency.

The Sister Superior of St. Joseph's Hospital, Louisville, scorned the idea of accepting the proceeds of the proposed prize-fight between Marvin Hart and Mike Sehreck, which was scheduled to take place in that City last month.

VICTIMS OF PLASTIC SURGERY.

Suffer Annoyance, Pain and Great Expense Seeking Beauty.

The experience of the woman who came out of the West to have her wrinkles smoothed out by a New York beautician, and sought redress in the courts, is a sad story. It is one of the hundreds of similar cases in every State of the Union.

To the one who has the courage to demand a refund for money paid for a plastic operation, the beautician may not be able to seek the most fitting legal remedy to benefit them.

There recently sailed to England a lady desiring at the altar with an English peer a beautiful American bride. She had been told that she would be the most beautiful bride in the land.

More beautiful than any other woman in the world, she was told. To a plastic surgeon she confided her dilemma. She was to be the most beautiful bride in the land.

She was to be the most beautiful bride in the land. She was to be the most beautiful bride in the land.

She was to be the most beautiful bride in the land. She was to be the most beautiful bride in the land.

SEEDS AND SHRUBS.

Grocery store takes a large counter section these days for the distribution of shrubs, and flower and vegetable seeds.

We have forty varieties of the most popular bush and climbing roses, in all shades—hardy two and three year old plants on their own roots, each wrapped separately.

We also have several varieties of shrubs, such as honeysuckle, spirea, iris, peony, hydrangea, clematis, althea, and lilac.

A new variety of rose, Tausendschon, a beautiful pink climber—fragrant, profuse bloomer. We will show you the growing plant.

We have colored plates of each bush and shrub we sell, which will assist you materially in selection.

Flower and vegetable seeds of every description are here as a matter of course.
