Balbriggan Underwear for Men.

The term "Balbriggan" was originally used only to designate high class, full fashioned goods made in the town of Balbriggan, Ireland, but now covers anything in light weight, flat underwear made of yarn the shade of Egyptian cotton.

We have a very complete line of men's balbriggan underwear.

20c and 25c qualities we carry in the Basement.

In Aisle A, Main floor, we show a line at 39c a garment which elsewhere is considered good value at 50c.

At 50c we have both light and medium weights in long or short, sleeve shirts, and in the lighter weight we have ankle and knee length drawers, including special stout sizes.

We also carry four numbers of French balbriggan underwear, made in Troyes, France. They are priced at 50c, 75c, $1 and $1.50 a garment.

Main Floor - Aisle A, and Basement.

Five Minute Sermon

Ask in the Name of Jesus and it Shall be Granted.

St. James the apostle says: "You ask and do not obtain cause you ask amiss." St. James says: "Some do not pray as they ought, and some pray for things that are not good, or at least no benefit to their soul, and therefore their prayers are not heard. If, however, they are sorry for their sins and pray in the proper manner for spiritual graces, in the name of Jesus, the Almighty Father will grant their requests. We should learn to grow in the Lord and in Christian hope; we should learn to pray in such a manner that our prayers may be pleasing to the Eternal Father, so that we may obtain those graces which we pray through Jesus Christ, in Jesus Christ, and with Jesus Christ."
