

DOG A TRAIN BEARER.

Lifts His Mistress's Skirt When She Walks Over Wet Pavement.

Clipped and blanketed dogs French poodles, pugs and such excite the contempt of the average person who likes dogs of a more vigorous sort.

A woman was about to cross the street followed by a small and mean looking pug dog.

She called to the dog and the dog trotted obediently up and took the hem of her skirt in his teeth.

Plainer Speech Needed.

The late Bishop Fulton, in his early days, had occasion to officiate at a christening in a small fishing village.

Has Memorized 40,000 Dates.

It is said that the late Bishop Fulton had memorized 40,000 dates.

A Bitter Jest.

By the will of one of the trustees of the Cambry Baptist Chapel (Belton, S. C.) the testator directed that $100 was to be paid to each of the deacons of the church.

Wagner Footed the Critics.

Here is a story of Wagner's visit to London in 1855. After the first Philharmonic concert the critics reproached him for conducting a Beethoven symphony without the score.

Dressed for the Concert.

Heinrich Conried was telling how he had the old-fashioned concert dress sometimes. An old Chicago millionaire, he said, called upstairs to his daughter.

Glory.

How many metals make the bronze of Corinth? Insults on boards or on paper, the spot of ink or charcoal or sand, the dress of heart, of mind and of body, the dirt of chimney, all these under the sun, dry, harden, turn into bronze, which is called glory.—Cataldo Menace.

Sounds "Taps" on Mayor.

A "striking" ceremony marks the expiration of the Grantham (England) mayor's tenure of office. The robe is stripped from him, the chain is taken from about his neck and with a small wooden hammer the town clerks taps the ex-mayor on the head in token of the demise of his authority.

Origin of "Yankee."

The word "Yankee" is derived from a Cherokee word, Yankke, which signifies upward and slave. This epithet of "Yankee" was bestowed upon the New Englanders by the Virginians for not assisting them in a war with the Cherokees.

The Call of Companionship.

You often hear a lonesome child say: "I want some one to play with!" Elderly people often become lonesome and want some one to play with, but are afraid to say so.—Athletic Globe.

Some Heavy Swells.

"Society is like a wave," comments a contemporary. He then explains why but misses the main point, which is that there are some heavy swells.—San Antonio Express.

Real Pathos.

There is nothing so pathetic as the efforts of a dull mind to produce bright speech.

Ocean Depths Rich in Radium.

Deeplying sediments of the ocean are exceptionally rich in radium.

IMMENSE CONCRETE PIERS.

Those of Clover Bar Bridge May Be Largest in the World.

The concrete piers of the Clover Bar Bridge on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway are said to be the largest of concrete piers in Canada, and perhaps in the world, says the Edmonton Bulletin.

SEIDLITZ POWDER CARTRIDGE.

A Man's Life Saved After Choking On Tough Beef.

How a man's life was saved by a common Seidlitz powder is described by a German physician Dr. Frank who was called to treat a man who had swallowed a large piece of tough meat which stuck in his throat.

A Lazy Boy's Invention.

The long-handled shovel has made over three hundred thousand dollars for its inventor and the inventor was a lazy shifthead boy of seventeen named Houben Davis, whose father lived in Vermont at the time.

Helpful to the Man.

Little Mabel was visiting her uncle in the country and helping him gather eggs. "What's that one you leave in the nest every time?" was the youthful inquiry.

Clock Made of Straw.

A shoemaker named Wagner, living in Strasburg, has a clock of the grand father shape nearly six feet high made entirely of straw.

Scientific Wonders.

A photographic plate coupled with a telescope discovers millions of stars whose light is the retina of the eye is not appreciable, the microscope makes the inaudible tread of a fly sound like the tramp of cavalry men.

Put Your Faith In Truth.

Have faith in truth, never in numbers. The great surge of numbers rolls up noisily and imposingly, but tatters on the shore and slides back into the mud of oblivion. But a conviction is the ocean itself, calm in its rest, eternal in its power. Platt.

Unobscured Male Dramatists.

Masculine dramatists are old-fashioned enough to make their work "catty." It shows a lack of observation to make the feminine character in a modern play behave in the quarter of the eighteenth century.—London Sketch.

Spreads Use of Electricity.

Because of the degree of excellence and efficiency attained in the construction of gasoline engines the use of isolated electric plants is extending.

THERE is No Better Asset a man in this age can possess than a clean-out, well-dressed personal appearance.

Good clothes are not necessarily expensive clothes, but they are well tailored clothes: clothes that fit you. That is the kind of clothing we are talking about.

We are Making a Specialty of our TwentyDollar Suits. If there is, anywhere, a better suit of clothes sold at this price than those we offer at this new store, we have never seen it. They are "Rightly-Made-Clothes" in every little detail of fabric, style and tailoring.

is not an unusual price to pay for a good suit of clothes but our $20 values are very unusual.
