

THE YELLOW ROSEBUSH

The afternoon sun was caressing the flowers in the old garden for the last time. The gate opened and a sweet lady in white came down the bordered path, peering from left to right.

"Laddie, Laddie," she called, "where's mother's little man?" "Crouching behind a hollyhock a little figure was trying to avoid observation, but a gleeful laugh burst from his lips at his mother's ignorance of his hiding place, and in another moment his dusty blue jumper was nestling in the folds of a white gown.

"Naughty Laddie to make poor mother hunt!" "Laddie's laugh rang out again. He waved a bright flag in the air. "Tell me a story, mummy, a nice, long story."

ST. MARY'S GRADUATION.

Ten Young Women Receive Nurse's Diplomas.

Graduating exercises for ten nurses of St. Mary's Hospital were held in the surgical pavilion of the hospital Thursday night. Diplomas, signifying the completion of the three years course were presented.

The presentation was made by Rev. Dr. Andrew E. Breen. The graduates are: Regina Gertrude Kelly, Flushing, L. I.; Mary Loreta Macdonald, Lindsay, Canada; Mary Margaret Cunningham, Lindsay, Canada; Mary Helena Sullivan, Genoa, Italia; Dorothy Middleton, Danville, Florence; Ethel Hans, Lyons, and Helena Magdalene Gaffney, Stanley, and Anna Edith Barry Lollyn Priddy, and Barbara Katherine Walters, all of Rochester.

Besides the presentation address by Dr. Breen there was an address by Dr. T. A. O'Hare, president of the staff of the hospital. Miss Priddy was awarded the special prize of a case of instruments for the highest general average in all of the examinations. She also won the Dr. C. Phillip Calkin prize for the examination in general medicine. The Dr. Catherine Buck case of instruments was awarded to Miss Walters. The best examination in diseases of the eye and ear was won by Miss Helena Gaffney.

Following the closing of the exercises a dinner was given by the graduates to their friends. The exercises were attended by a large number of the friends of the graduates.

Rochester Young Women.

Bishop Thomas F. Hickey presided Thursday at St. Elizabeth's College, Morristown, N. J., when two Rochester young women graduated with high honors in a large class of students.

Baker Theater.

For their initial production at the Baker Theater commencing Monday afternoon, June 14, Bert Lytell and his company have chosen "The Boys of Company B," a play in which Arnold Daly and Frances Ring scored a great success.

In Memoriam

At a regular meeting of Council 23 C.R. & B.A. the following resolutions were adopted: Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to send the angel of Death into our midst and to take therefrom one of our most estimable members, Mrs. James Ryan.

Tiny Specks of Evidence.

The little brown specks noticeable in the strands of WOODCOCK MACARONI are tiny particles of genuine gluten bran, worth their weight in gold as strengthening and health-giving food.

Celebrates His First Mass.

The Rev. Edward Raymond Kirk, who was raised to the Holy Priesthood Saturday, June 5, by the Rt. Rev. Charles H. Colton at St. Joseph's Cathedral, Buffalo, N. Y., sang his first solemn high mass at St. Augustine's Church in this city Sunday, June 6.

Bishop Grimes At St. Bernard's

New Coadjutor of Syracuse Ordains for First Time. 23 Student's Get Orders. Rt. Rev. John Grimes, D. D., the new Coadjutor Bishop of Syracuse, officiated for the first time as an ordaining bishop at St. Bernard's Seminary Thursday morning.

The ceremonies commenced in the Seminary (chapel) at 8 o'clock. All students of the seminary numbering 280, marched in a body to the chapel, and took their seats outside the sanctuary. The solemn music of the mass was sung by the choir of students under the direction of Professor Rev. John Peltzer. Bishop Grimes was assisted during the ceremonies by Rev. Dr. J. J. Hartley, rector of the seminary, Rev. William Guggan, D. D., Rev. Edward J. Hanna, and Rev. A. B. Meehan acted as the master of ceremonies. The ordinandi consisted of twenty-three young men who were first ordained sub-deacons by Bishop Grimes, and afterwards received the dignity of deaconship from his hands.

Blessed Sacrament.

The children of the parish are holding numbers on the beautiful Little Browner which is on exhibition at Edwards & Co's window on Main Street. They are taking this means of raising funds for the new church of raising funds for the new church of raising funds for the new church.

Auburn, N. Y.

Many Auburnians are planning on attending the picnic on July 5 to be given by Rev. J. B. Doran at Scipio. The affair will be one of the most interesting of the many held in that town. The races that will be pulled off on this date will be something new for the rural citizens.

High Finance.

Two men, miserably clad, called on the dean of a medical college in New York. "We are both on the verge of starvation, sir," the spokesman said. "We are well on in years and it is clear that we haven't much longer to live. Would you care to purchase our bodies for your dissecting room?"

High Prices of Horshoes.

Horace I. Moore was Lieutenant Colonel of the noted Nineteenth Kansas Cavalry. He could lead men for a longer period without rest, on a single ration of cheerful good humor, than any other officer. Though not given to jokes, he was the reputed author of as many jests as Lincoln.

Swede Quits His Job.

Two Swedes were working on a lumber raft on the Mississippi. After a while one of them came to the boss on shore, and after standing around for some time, finally spoke up: "Ay, tink we need 'noder manna."

Dangerous Oil Wells.

The question of underground connection of petroleum supplies bids fair to be an important one to Mexican and possibly Texas owners of wells and land. At last accounts the Mexican San Geronimo field was in flames, and the fire was steadily spreading. It became volcano-like at last, and in a great explosion blew off the top of a hill.

Bishop Grimes At St. Bernard's

New Coadjutor of Syracuse Ordains for First Time. 23 Student's Get Orders. Rt. Rev. John Grimes, D. D., the new Coadjutor Bishop of Syracuse, officiated for the first time as an ordaining bishop at St. Bernard's Seminary Thursday morning.

The ceremonies commenced in the Seminary (chapel) at 8 o'clock. All students of the seminary numbering 280, marched in a body to the chapel, and took their seats outside the sanctuary. The solemn music of the mass was sung by the choir of students under the direction of Professor Rev. John Peltzer.

The children of the parish are holding numbers on the beautiful Little Browner which is on exhibition at Edwards & Co's window on Main Street. They are taking this means of raising funds for the new church of raising funds for the new church of raising funds for the new church.

Auburn, N. Y.

Many Auburnians are planning on attending the picnic on July 5 to be given by Rev. J. B. Doran at Scipio. The affair will be one of the most interesting of the many held in that town. The races that will be pulled off on this date will be something new for the rural citizens.

High Finance.

Two men, miserably clad, called on the dean of a medical college in New York. "We are both on the verge of starvation, sir," the spokesman said. "We are well on in years and it is clear that we haven't much longer to live. Would you care to purchase our bodies for your dissecting room?"

High Prices of Horshoes.

Horace I. Moore was Lieutenant Colonel of the noted Nineteenth Kansas Cavalry. He could lead men for a longer period without rest, on a single ration of cheerful good humor, than any other officer. Though not given to jokes, he was the reputed author of as many jests as Lincoln.

Swede Quits His Job.

Two Swedes were working on a lumber raft on the Mississippi. After a while one of them came to the boss on shore, and after standing around for some time, finally spoke up: "Ay, tink we need 'noder manna."

Dangerous Oil Wells.

The question of underground connection of petroleum supplies bids fair to be an important one to Mexican and possibly Texas owners of wells and land. At last accounts the Mexican San Geronimo field was in flames, and the fire was steadily spreading. It became volcano-like at last, and in a great explosion blew off the top of a hill.

Holy Apostles.

In the presence of the immediate family and a few friends, Miss Johanna S. Engert was married to Mr. Howard H. Forbes on Wednesday evening last at the rectory of the Holy Apostles Church by Rev. Daniel Sullivan. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Eva S. Engert and the groom by Mr. Edward J. Weber.

FRANK J. STUPP

First Communion Prayer Books

A Beautiful present given with each Prayer Book

37 CLINTON AVENUE NORTH

Only Catholic Bookstore in Rochester.

Chinese Ideas. You seldom see a Chinaman bereft of an arm leg or other member of his body. The reason for this is that the Orientals have a profound objection to surgical operations. They much prefer to die than lose a member.

Rat Skin Industry. The crusade which England and recently instituted against rats has resulted in the establishment of many new industries in London alone the value of the new industries now exceed $200,000 a year.

Sleeping in Tents. Since it became generally known that sleeping in the open air is a good remedy for tuberculosis, many people have adopted the practice of sleeping in tents in the summer. But sleeping in a tent is far different from sleeping in the open air.

Manicuring a Horse. A horse a hoof is really the same as the toe or finger nails of human beings or of animals having toes. The hoof grows just as a toe nail does and more rapidly on unshod horses than on those wearing shoes.

High Finance. Two men, miserably clad, called on the dean of a medical college in New York. "We are both on the verge of starvation, sir," the spokesman said. "We are well on in years and it is clear that we haven't much longer to live. Would you care to purchase our bodies for your dissecting room?"

High Prices of Horshoes. Horace I. Moore was Lieutenant Colonel of the noted Nineteenth Kansas Cavalry. He could lead men for a longer period without rest, on a single ration of cheerful good humor, than any other officer. Though not given to jokes, he was the reputed author of as many jests as Lincoln.

Swede Quits His Job. Two Swedes were working on a lumber raft on the Mississippi. After a while one of them came to the boss on shore, and after standing around for some time, finally spoke up: "Ay, tink we need 'noder manna."

Dangerous Oil Wells. The question of underground connection of petroleum supplies bids fair to be an important one to Mexican and possibly Texas owners of wells and land. At last accounts the Mexican San Geronimo field was in flames, and the fire was steadily spreading.

Catholic Journal Coupon for Home of the Pipe Organ

Help Us To Save the Negro. For twenty-five years the Josephine Fathers have labored among the negroes of the state of Virginia. Already nine Mission Stations have been established.

Manicuring a Horse. A horse a hoof is really the same as the toe or finger nails of human beings or of animals having toes. The hoof grows just as a toe nail does and more rapidly on unshod horses than on those wearing shoes.

High Finance. Two men, miserably clad, called on the dean of a medical college in New York. "We are both on the verge of starvation, sir," the spokesman said. "We are well on in years and it is clear that we haven't much longer to live. Would you care to purchase our bodies for your dissecting room?"

High Prices of Horshoes. Horace I. Moore was Lieutenant Colonel of the noted Nineteenth Kansas Cavalry. He could lead men for a longer period without rest, on a single ration of cheerful good humor, than any other officer. Though not given to jokes, he was the reputed author of as many jests as Lincoln.

Swede Quits His Job. Two Swedes were working on a lumber raft on the Mississippi. After a while one of them came to the boss on shore, and after standing around for some time, finally spoke up: "Ay, tink we need 'noder manna."

Dangerous Oil Wells. The question of underground connection of petroleum supplies bids fair to be an important one to Mexican and possibly Texas owners of wells and land. At last accounts the Mexican San Geronimo field was in flames, and the fire was steadily spreading.

ROCHESTER