

THE YELLOW ROSEBUSH

The afternoon sun was caressing the flowers in the old garden for the last time. The gate opened and a sweet lady in white came down the bordered path, peering from left to right. "Laddie, Laddie," she called, "where's mother's little man?"

ST. MARY'S GRADUATION.

Ten Young Women Receive Nurse's Diplomas.

Graduating exercises for ten nurses of St. Mary's Hospital were held in the surgical pavilion of the hospital Thursday night.

Besides the presentation address by Dr. Breen there was an address by Dr. T. A. O'Hare, president of the staff of the hospital.

Rochester Young Women. Bishop Thomas F. Hickey presided Thursday at St. Elizabeth's College.

Baker Theater. For their initial production at the Baker Theater commencing Monday afternoon, June 14, Bert Lytell and his company have chosen "The Boys of Company B."

Seats are now on sale, and the prices are as follows: Matinees, first 12 rows in the orchestra, 35c.

In Memoriam

At a regular meeting of Council 23 C.R. & B.A. the following resolutions were adopted: Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to send the angel of Death into our midst and to take therefrom one of our most estimable members, Mrs. James Ryan.

Resolved, that we sincerely condole with the family in their severe affliction and trust they will be enabled with the Christian resignation to bear their loss, which an all-wise Providence has inflicted upon them.

Tiny Specks of Evidence.

The little brown specks noticeable in the strands of WOODCOCK MACARONI are tiny particles of genuine gluten bran, worth their weight in gold as strengthening and health-giving food.

Celebrates His First Mass.

The Rev. Edward Raymond Kirk, who was raised to the Holy Priesthood Saturday, June 5, by the Rt. Rev. Charles H. Colton at St. Joseph's Cathedral, Buffalo, N. Y., sang his first solemn high mass at St. Augustine's Church in this city Sunday, June 6.

Father Kirk was assisted by the rector of St. Augustine's, Rev. John H. O'Brien, as archdeacon, Rev. John P. Downing, C. M. of Niagara University, as deacon, and Rev. Joseph DiSanti, of St. Mary's College, Belmont, N. C., as subdeacon.

The church was crowded to the doors with relatives and friends of Father Kirk. Special music was rendered by the church choir under the direction of Mr. Charles Blesedach, assisted by several soloists.

Confirmation was conferred on a large class in the afternoon by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Hickey. Solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given by Father Kirk.

Many Auburnians are planning on attending the picnic on July 5 to be held at Scipio.

The children of the Holy Family Church will receive their first Holy Communion on next Sunday morning at the church.

The annual picnic for the benefit of the Auburn Asylum will take place as usual on July 5th this year.

The several schools of the city are now preparing for the final examinations of the year.

Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus, are making preparations for the summer season.

The question of underground connection of petroleum supplies bids fair to be an important one to Mexican and possibly Texas owners of wells and land.

Bishop Grimes At St. Bernard's

New Coadjutor of Syracuse Ordains for First Time.

23 Student's Get Orders

Rt. Rev. John Grimes, D. D., the new Coadjutor Bishop of Syracuse, officiated for the first time as an ordaining bishop at St. Bernard's Seminary Thursday morning.

The ceremonies commenced in the Seminary (chapel) at 8 o'clock. All students of the seminary numbering 280, marched in a body to the chapel, and took their seats outside the sanctuary.

Bishop Thomas F. Hickey was in Morristown, N. J. Thursday at the graduation exercises of St. Elizabeth's College.

BLESSED SACRAMENT.

The children of the parish are holding numbers on the beautiful Little Browner which is on exhibition at Edwards & Co's window on Main Street.

The play given last Monday evening by the Young Ladies' Sodality was a most enjoyable and successful affair.

An enthusiastic meeting of a large number of the parishioners took place in the hall last Tuesday evening to take definite action regarding the building of the new church.

The play given last Monday evening by the Young Ladies' Sodality was a most enjoyable and successful affair.

HOLY APOSTLES.

In the presence of the immediate family and a few friends, Miss Johanna S. Englert was married to Mr. Howard H. Forbes on Wednesday evening last at the rectory of the Holy Apostles Church by Rev. Daniel Sullivan.

FRANK J. STUPP

First Communion Prayer Books

A Beautiful present given with each Prayer Book

37 CLINTON AVENUE NORTH

Only Catholic Bookstore in Rochester.

Chinese Ideas. You seldom see a Chinaman bereft of an arm leg or other member of his body. The reason for this is that the Orientals have a profound objection to surgical operations.

Rat Skin Industry. The crusade which England and recently instituted against rats has resulted in the establishment of many new industries in London alone the value of the new industries now exceed $200,000 a year.

Sleeping in Tents. Since it became generally known that sleeping in the open air is a good remedy for tuberculosis, many people have adopted the practice of sleeping in tents in the summer.

Manicuring a Horse. A horse's hoof is really the same as the toe or finger nails of human beings or of animals having toes.

High Finance. Two men, miserably clad, called on the dean of a medical college in New York.

Swede Quits His Job. Two Swedes were working on a lumber raft on the Mississippi. After a while one of them came to the boss on shore, and after standing around for some time, finally spoke up:

Donald Knew. Margaret, aged ten, was a beginner in history. "Mamma," she asked, "what does 'behead' mean?"

Special Offer to Our Readers. Having made arrangements with the management of The Home of the Pipe Organ, which has lately been opened at 274 Main Street East, the proprietors of this paper are enabled to offer a half-price admission privilege to all readers presenting accompanying coupon at box office.

Catholic Journal Coupon for Home of the Pipe Organ

Help Us To Save the Negro. For twenty-five years the Josephite Fathers have labored among the negroes of the state of Virginia. Already nine Mission Stations have been established. These are supported by Saint Joseph's Mission House.

Of all things the most divine is to co-operate in the salvation of souls. —St. Cyril of Jerusalem

Pretty Slow. Horace I. Moore was Lieutenant Colonel of the noted Nineteenth Kansas Cavalry. He could lead men for a longer period without rest, on a single ration of cheerful good humor, than any other officer.

High Prices of Horses. General St. Clair Mulholland, veteran and historian of the civil war, tells an incident showing the utter worthlessness of Confederate paper money at the close of the war.

Doak for Brazilian Drednoughts. The Government of Brazil has called for bids for the construction of a great floating dry dock to accommodate war and merchant vessels, and especially the new battleships of the Drednought type now being constructed in England for the Brazilian navy.

Know His Business. "Say," said the old farmer sneeringly, to the city chap who was working in his garden, "what art yew agoin' to do when yew get through diggin'?"

Put a porous plaster on my back. —read the amateur soil disturber.

ROCHESTER