A $70 Sewing Machine for $35

In this National Automatic sewing machine the proposition we make our public is this:

Here is a sewing machine the exact counterpart, design for design, part for part, quality for quality, of the original and best automatic sewing machine built. That machine sells for $70. Our National Automatic is $35.

It is the easiest running machine made.

It is a perfect stitching machine, using a single thread and producing an elastic chain stitch.

This stitch can be securely locked at the end of the seam to preclude all possibility of ripping out, while at the same time the seam may be unlocked at any point and pulled out instantaneously.

Because of its automatic features, it is always in good working order. There is no tension or other adjustment to bother the inexperienced seamstress.

Accompanying and protecting every National Automatic Sewing Machine is a ten year guaranty.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

Again, God in his divine Providence, has called to Himself one endeared to His heart. For surely loved are they whom God permits to suffer: And near and dear to Christ are they that suffer and bear with Christ. Such a one as this was Margaret Henry, daughter of Joseph P. and Mary E. Henry, whose funeral was held Wednesday morning at ten o'clock from the Immaculate Conception Church.

Her life long, patiently with Christ she bore her cross, and only she ceased to bear the burden until Christ, her master called her to her eternal reward.

Happy must have been her blessed soul in her last hours of life, when glancing about she beheld pressing close to her, her devoted parents, her sisters and brothers, one vested in power greater than kings—a priest, the other and only a few years between him and God's altar. Surely, we may say it was an inspiring bedside for the dying child.

The morning following her death, mass was said for the repose of her soul by her brother Rev. Father Robert Henry assisted by Joseph Henry Jr. a student of St. Bernard's Seminary.

On Wednesday within a church filled with friends and relatives, mass was again celebrated by her brother Rev. R. A. Henry assisted by Rev. J. Brophy as deacon and Rev. Geo. Eckl, as sub-deacon. Absolution was given by Bishop Hickey after mass at which burial was had at Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The deceased is survived by her parents Joseph P. and Mary E. Henry, two brothers Rev. Robert Henry of Rome N. Y., and Joseph P. Jr. a student of St. Bernard's Seminary, four sisters Lillian C., May T., Florence and Agnes Henry all of this city, to whom friends and acquaintances beg leave to express their deep sorrow. May her soul rest in peace.

Among those present in the sanctuary were: Rt. Rev. F. Hickey D.D., Rev. A. M. O'Neill
