Special Values in Sewing Machines

It is impossible to do the sewing machine business without an accumulation of floor samples—machines which have lost just a bit of their freshness through handling and demonstration. These we plan each six months to close out. We are up to the summer clearance sale now. Offerings include "Standard Rotary" machines in various styles—box tops, drop heads, automatic drop heads, and parlor cabinet patterns.

- No. 2 "Rotary," box top, regularly $35, for $30.
- 14H "Rotary," regularly $40, for $34.50.
- Grand Oak "Rotary," regularly $45, for $37.50.
- Fancy Grand "Rotary," regularly $50, for $45.
- Cabinet "Rotary" machines—oak, mahogany and walnut, $55 and $60 values, for $48.

Usual easy terms—$2 down and $1 per week.

Special values in sewing machine sundries:

- Needles for Domestic, Singer, Wheeler & Wilson, "Standard" Household, New Howe, Davis, White, Lenox and others, at 14c a dozen.

What Are You Going To Do,

Complain of the heat, or prepare to keep cool in spite of it? Any housewife will tell you that twice as much work may be accomplished in the same amount of time in a Gas Range Kitchen than where other fuel is used.

The Reason Why

The kitchen is not overheated. There is no unnecessary heat. The heat is transmitted directly from the burner to the vessel to be heated—none is wasted.

You will accomplish much more if you

Cathedral.

Last Sunday at the different masses Rev. Father O'Hern made known the plan for repairing and beautifying the surroundings of the Cathedral. An exit will be placed under the east gallery corresponding to the one on the west side, and shrubs and trees will be planted to the east of the church on the property recently acquired by the church from the neighboring corporation. The shrubs and trees have been kindly donated by Mr. William Barry of this parish.

The Rosary Society is invited to receive Holy Communion Sunday at the 7.30 mass.

During the month of July the census of the parish will be taken. The priests will visit each family and inquire about the relationship existing between the members and the church.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop has appointed Rev. Edward Simpson assistant priest at the Cathedral. Father Simpson, who is a newly ordained priest, received his early training in Holy Apostle's school.

Immaculate Conception.

The funeral of Mr. Patrick Tubbs of Glasgow Street, took place from this church on last Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

Mr. William Hussey of Exchange Street, was buried from this church on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Hogan of 17 Glasgow Street, is spending her vacation in Auburn. Miss Marguerite Smith of Albany, is the guest of her uncle, Mr. Joseph Henry of 65 Glasgow Street.

Next Sunday will be communion Sunday for the Rosary Society. There will be a meeting at 4 p. m.

Corpus Christi.

The Rosary Society will meet on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

During July and August the 10.30 o'clock mass on Sundays will be low mass.

Sunday is communion day for the boys of the school.

We note with pleasure that Rev. James Winters, our former assistant pastor, is now in charge of the thriving parish at Horseheads, N. Y.

St. Bridget's.

A high mass was offered on Monday morning for Mr. Koethich.

An anniversary high mass was sung on Wednesday morning for Hugh McGuire.

A month's mind high mass was offered on Saturday morning for Mrs. John Coffey.

A manifestation of the work done by our good sisters was given last Sunday evening, when twenty-nine pupils graduated from our school with great honors.

Our Rt. Rev. Bishop delivered a very touching oration, after which the class was presented to him. The gold medal for the highest average was awarded to Mildred Wilcox, who attained an average of 98 per cent. A gold medal was given to James Gaffney for not missing a day from school in his course in St. Bridget's.

The Rev. Father O'Donohue's gold medal for Christian Doctrine was competed for by many pupils. After this our Rt. Rev. Bishop officiated at St. Bridget's, June 21, thirty-four pupils received solemn Pontifical benediction, assisted by many of the clergy of the diocese, and the singing of the hymn, "Holy God," closed the service.

A special feature of the program was the singing of about two hundred of our children, which was in every way a grand success. We extend our heartfelt thanks to all, who in any way contributed to make this unusual occasion a grand success.

St. Mary's.

At the graduation exercises held at St. Mary's Hall on Monday evening children on the happiness they enjoyed their diplomas. A feature of the exercises was the presentation of a large basket of flowers to Rev. William Gleeson who in company with Rev. Augustine M. O'Neill, is to sail for Europe on July 9. Miss Genevieve Rehberg made the presentation. Father Gleeson replied in a regret in his coming absence from his school children and also the congregation.

The Boy's Scholarship gold medal given by Rev. William Gleeson was awarded to James Farrell; the Girl's Scholarship gold medal given by Mrs. J. H. Lambert, was awarded to Helen Remmel. The Christian Doctrine gold medal given by Rev. Edmund A. Hamilton was awarded to Helen Remmel; the Sister M. Catherine "Excellence Medal" given by Miss Elizabeth Daly was awarded to Teresa Smith.

A feature introduced at the sixth annual outing of the Confraternity of Mary held Monday at Sea Breeze was a real ball game. The young ladies indulged in this pastime with all the ease and gracefulness that their opposite sex uses in the national game. Over 100 members were present. Under the direction of the committee on sports the athletic events were run off in good time.

The following prizes were won: Running race, Miss Lillian Phalen; throwing ball, Miss Marguerite Short; 20th century race, Miss Eileen Phalen; peanut race, Miss Mary Dougherty and Bessie Connor; throwing ball through hoop, Miss Eileen Healdie; egg race, Miss Angie Shields.

The return trip was by way of Charlotte. During the boat ride Miss Mary Loughney, president of the Confraternity was the recipient of a handsome prize given by the sporting committee.

A regular meeting of the Rosary Society will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the church.

The members of the Rosary Society are invited to Holy Communion Sunday.

On Sunday, July 4, our reverend pastor, William Gleeson, together with Rev. A. O'Neill of the Immaculate Conception, will sail for Europe. Their trip will be an extended one, touching France, England, Ireland, and other foreign countries. While it is with regret that we will welcome his absence, yet we wish him a hearty and a good voyage for we know that he has well deserved and earned this rest.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Derloth to Mr. Charles Carman took place Monday at 3 o'clock. Miss Barbara Witsel acted as bridesmaid and Edward Derloth was best man.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Baler.

Branch 131 C. M. B. A., will hold their next regular meeting July 10, at 8 o'clock.

The L. C. B. A. will hold their regular meeting next Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Holy Redeemer.

A large class of children received the Blessed Eucharist for the first time from the hands of Rev. Jacob F. Staub who celebrated the mass at 8 o'clock last Sunday morning. He delivered an eloquent sermon to the children in the happiness they enjoyed in making their first communion.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the children renewed their baptismal vows. The ceremony at both the services was very impressive and solemn as was the offering up of the candles of the first communicants. The services were largely attended.

The funeral of Louise Lochner, who died Monday at 287 Hudson Avenue, in her 58th year was held Thursday morning at 9.30 o'clock from her late residence, 247 Hudson Avenue, and at 9 o'clock from the church.

The graduation exercises which were given by the members of the alumni of this school on last Tuesday and Wednesday evenings was a grand success and were two of the best dramas ever given at Concordia Hall.
