

Albertine's Theme

Mr Bromley said reprovingly from the head of the dinner table "I fail to see any good reason why a university professor's unfavorable comments on your theme should provoke so much merriment..."

DIETING AN ENGINE.

A Locomotive Under the Care of High Salaried Food Experts. Railroad engineering is a pretty exact science and the big engine on the test table at Altoona is only one of many evidences of the skill that is being brought to bear upon the operation of the great railroad time.

Salvage

"I guess I'll go aloft, May," the keeper of the Point Light said to the young girl who sat near him. "I'll light her up, a storm's a-brewin'!"

MODERNISM AND LOVE.

Has the Young Man of To-Day No Time for Romance? Romance is dying. Chivalry is dead. Sentiment is failing, and the good days are no more.
