"Miss Van Ruyter, you have unintentionally learned of my secret," said Norton as, enthralled, she continued to gaze upon the canvas. "This is the portrait of my wife, Marie, who died twenty years ago, when she was about your age, I should judge. You are surprised. I know the question you would like to ask. This is not you would say, the

Her appreciation pleased him. "Thank you", he said simply, and then went on: "But the most singular part of it all, Miss Van Nytzer, is that the illusive quality we have missed in the portrayal of my dear wife. I imagine I find friends, and cast the glow of cheer upon them, and the cloud will give way before the brightness and joy its own light has

The Springfield Republican, commenting on the figures recently given out by the United States Census Bureau says: "New England is how Roman Catholic—so far as it is anything in the way of church membership." In every state of this quondam stronghold of Puritan Protestantism Catholic church-growth out-number by a liberal percentage the church-growth of all other sects combined.
