Macaroni and Health.

Nine-tenths of the ailments of mankind have their origin in improper eating. It is not how much, but how wisely we eat, that gives health. Therefore the food having the most nutritive qualities is the ideal food. Wheat is acknowledged to contain four-fifths of the necessary elements. Woodcock Macaroni is made from whole wheat granules and pure water. It is easily digested, appetizing and hygienically manufactured by American workmen. 15c. at all grocers. Be sure to get Woodcock Macaroni.

Baker Theatre.

For his first Exposition week attraction commencing with the matinee on Monday Oct. 11 and continuing for the week, Mr. Lytell and his company will be seen in Sidney Toler's beautiful drama of the New South, entitled "The Belle of Richmond." This play while not familiar to local theatergoers has been produced by every stock company of prominence in the country and always to large and enthusiastic audiences and it is safe to say that the same will be the case in Rochester. Mr. Lytell will be seen in the role of "Jerry Gordon" while Mr. Milton will enact the part of the rival lover, "Billy Osmond." Miss Adair will play "Nellie Mason," the "belle of Richmond." The usual matinees will be played on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

Cook Opera House.

The Cook Opera House, with its reign of vaudeville drawing to a glorious close, will offer its large clientele next week another good bill of vaudeville. Heading the bill is the act of Jesse L. Lasky called "The New Pianophiends." Patrons will welcome the announcement of the return of Howard & North in their original act entitled "Those Were the Happy Days." Further up in the bill is the new act of William Macart and Ethelynnne Bradford called "A Legitimate Hold-Up." Another excellent act is that of Frank Morrell, who will appear in a blackface singing and monologue act. Leo Carillo, will offer his famous impersonations, following the whirlwind dancing and tumbling act of Emma Francis and her Arab boys. Opening the show is the aerial act of the Pederson brothers, and coming just before the Mooreoscope pictures is that very lively comedy acrobatic act of the Four Rianos called "In Africa."

ROCHESTER SAVINGS BANK

One Safe Place for it.

In spite of the fact that just last year the public was a little nervous, the first six months of this year our deposits increased nearly half a million dollars, and the reason is obvious.

The savings bank is a place where trust funds, the widows' and poor men's savings are securely guarded, both by law, and the character of the men in charge. For 78 years the small savers, with full confidence, have entrusted their little surplus with us.
