JAY W COOK.

One of the Democratic wards generaly conceded to the Republicans this fall is the First Jay W Cook Republican candidate for Alderman is making an energetic canvass and his election in November is confidently predicted by those familiar with the situation The First Ward is one of the most important in Rochester and the Republicans recognized this fact when they named as their standardbearer a business man of known ability and integrity

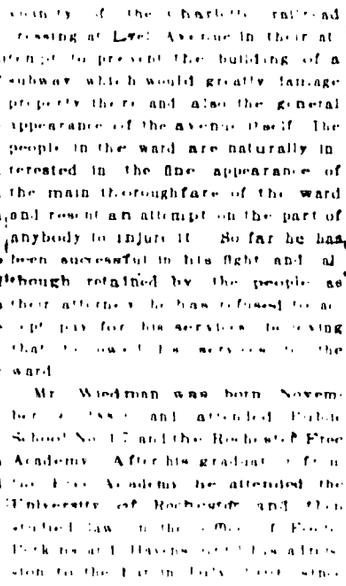
Jay W Cook, candidate for Alderman, comes from a family of soldiers his greatgrandfather having been one of Washington's guards in the Revolutionary War, his father serving in the Civil War, and himself being a veteran of the late Spanish-American War.

Mr. Cook was born in Mattewan, Mich., in 1869 When he was 5 years of age his father moved to Orleans County, this state, where he was educated in the district schools and in Holly High School. For 14 years he resided in Brockport and came to Rochester 12 years ago.

He is in business in North Street at the head of the J. W. Cook Carting Company and owner of the J. W Cook Sales Stables

Mr Cook is justly proud of the fighting ancestors His father Dr Willis C Cook fought all through the Civil War and when in 1898 the United States was threatened again the Cook family gave another member of its family for the country's service, when the present candidate for Alderman enlisted in Company F Third New York Volunteer Infantry and served until the end of the war

Mr Cook is a member of Rochester City Lodge K of P and Past Commander of L Boardman Smith Camp, United States Spanish War Veterans



FREDERICK WIEDMAN

The Republican candidate for Alderman of the Fifteenth Ward is a lifelong resident of the ward where he has a host of friends and acquaintances throughout the city. Residing in the ward for so long he has naturally become acquainted with all the needs of the ward and the wishes of the people there

During the past year he has led the fight for the residents of the vicinity of the Charlotte railroad crossing at Lyell Avenue in their attempt to prevent the building of a subway which would greatly damage property there and also the general appearance of the avenue Itself The people in the ward are naturally interested in the fine appearance of the main thoroughfare of the ward and resent an attempt on the part of anybody to injure it So far he has been successful in his fight and although retained by the people as their attorney he has refused to accept pay for his services in saving that he owed his services to the ward

Mr Wiedman was born November 2 1880 and attended Public School No 17 and the Rochester Free Academy After his graduation from the Free Academy he attended the University of Rochester and then started law in the office of Ford Peck and Harris and his admission to the bar in July 1902 since which time he has been associated with William F Love in the practice of law with offices at No 218 Ellwanger & Barry Building

Mr Wiedman during his life has been prominently connected with athletic sports of all kinds having played on the football and baseball teams of the Free Academy, University of Rochester and other amateur teams of Rochester and last year did most of the pitching for the indoor baseball team of the Cathedral

RAYMOND E. WESTBURY.

Until about a year ago he was in partnership with G. Townley Fries, at which time Mr Fries left the city In 1903, Mr Westbury was elected to the Common Council by a substantial majority The next election he was re-elected by a majority of 880, there being no Democratic candidate. Two years ago, he showed his strength by defeating his opponents with a majority of 455 He is at present a member of the Law Committee, Charter Amendment Committee and Public Schools Committee His re-election this fall is conceded

GEORGE A STIFFLER

Supervisor Stiffler was born in 1879 in the Fifteenth Ward and received his education in the parochial schools graduating from SS Peter and Pauls

His record is good and he should be returned to the Board of Supervisors by a good majority

ANDERSON G. SMALL.

Nineteenth Ward Republicans are proud of their ticket this fall, but they are especially enthusiastic over the nomination of Anderson G Small, known affectionately as "Andy" Small by name but big by nature, very aptly fits the genial, sociable and amiable candidate. His smile is as catching as it is wholesouled and is an index to his optimistic temperament. Andy was born in Hamilton on May 2 1883 where he went to school At the age of 17 he moved to Buffalo as a bookkeeper for Alan Medrum & Anderson a large dry goods house

Outdoor life had its fascination for him and he went on the road as a traveling salesman covering much of the Western country The Bell Telephone Company of Buffalo offered him a place in 1898 and he accepted but having visited Rochester several times in his work as a salesman and liking the town he asked to be transferred here It was done and since then Anderson G Small has been a resident of Rochester and of the Nineteenth Ward

For about 10 years he remained with the Bell Company but last December he left the telephone field to go into the life insurance business being at the present time with the Penn Mutual Company He owns property in the Nineteenth Ward and has been active in ward politics for several years never however accepting office of any kind His long business experience culture obtained by travel and early education fit him for the office of Alderman and insure the taxpayers of the ward of a man who is able and capable and one who will always have their interests foremost He is a member of several organizations

Everywhere that he has been in the Ward he has made a favorable impression and the indications are that he will win by a great big plurality redeeming the ward back to the old party of which he has been proud to be a private until called at this time to enter the campaign as a candidate

DEMAND SPICY READING.

English Holiday Trade Shows Decline in Literary Taste.

Inquiries made in the big midland towns of England respecting the class of books bought for holiday reading have pointed to the deduction that there is a marked decline in literary taste and the appreciable increase in the demand for what is termed spicy reading

Apart from maps and guidebooks the bookseller's trade with one exception is practically dead at this season This exception is the sale of books of a more or less questionable moral tone. The demand for works of this class has been very large and the well-supplied market has been kept very busy.

It is rather remarkable that this season of the year, which from time immemorial has been regarded as a closed season in book publishing is being selected for the bringing out of a new work which deals with the holy orders.

Another book to be launched on the holiday season deals with the lives of some half-dozen women whose passions played a part in history.

Ready for any Emergency

"There are three faithful friends, an old wife, an old dog, and ready money," as Poor Richard says.

Money in the savings bank, ready for any emergency is a friend worth having.

A little saved each week will amount to much, if allowed to accumulate; and compound interest too, will do wonders.

You cannot foresee what the emergency will be; may be sickness, or disability; maybe a home in your old age; may be mere pleasure. But it's worth providing for.
