

Assemblyman Cyrus W. Phillips

Has been re-nominated by the Republican party in the Fourth District of Monroe County. Mr. Phillips was born in the city of Rochester in 1870 and is engaged in the practice of law in the Exchange and Livery Building. He is past president of his first term as president of the Association. He is a member of the Judiciary Committee of the Assembly. His most conspicuous services during his term in office were those involved in the passage of the bill creating a commission to inquire into the causes of Employers Liability and the Causes of Industrial Accidents and the bill strengthening and amending the statute of 1904 requiring railroad companies to pay their employees semi-monthly.

As a result of the passage of the bill providing for an Employers Liability Commission, one has been appointed and has among its members Senators, Assemblymen, manufacturers and workmen. Mr. Phillips is a member of this commission and chairman of the committee on causes of industrial accidents. He is also a member of the Prevention of Industrial Accidents. The commission is now acquainted with all the needs of the work and expects to report to the next legislature remedial legislation that will be highly beneficial to employers, employees and the general public.

With regard to the semi-monthly pay bill which bore his name it was introduced by him at the request of the railroad men of the state and in property of the general persuasion of a recommendation made by Governor Hughes in his annual message to the legislature. At the previous session of the legislature a bill had been passed but contained provisions which were unenforceable, and it was to be corrected these provisions that the bill was introduced by Mr. Phillips. As a result of this legislation all the railroad companies with the exception of two commenced paying their wages semi-monthly.

The Fourth Assembly District consists of the town of Greece, First, Second, Third, Fifth, Ninth, Tenth and Fourteenth Wards, and First and Second election districts of the Fifteenth ward and Fifth election district of the Twentieth Ward.

JAY W. COOK

One of the Democratic wards generally conceded to the Republicans this fall is the First. Jay W. Cook, Republican candidate for Alderman, is making an energetic canvass and his election in November is confidently predicted by those familiar with the situation. The First Ward is one of the most important in Rochester and the Republicans recognized this fact when they named as their standard-bearer a business man of known ability and integrity.

Jay W. Cook, candidate for Alderman, comes from a family of soldiers, his great-grandfather having been one of Washington's guards in the Revolutionary War, his father serving in the Civil War, and himself being a veteran of the late Spanish-American War.

Mr. Cook was born in Mattewan, Me., in 1869. When he was five years of age his father moved to Orleans County, this state, where he was educated in the district schools and in Holly High School. For 14 years he resided in Brockport and came to Rochester 12 years ago. He is in business in North Street at the head of the J. W. Cook Carting Company and owner of the J.

Mr. Cook is justly proud of the fighting ancestors. His father Dr. Willis C. Cook fought all through the Civil War and when in 1898 the United States was threatened again, the Cook family gave another candidate. Two years ago, he showed her of its family for the country's strength by defeating his opponent, when the present candidate for Alderman enlisted in Company, Third New York Volunteer Infantry and served until the end of the war.

Mr. Cook is a member of Rockester City Lodge, K. of P., and Past Commander of L. Boardman Smith Camp, United States Spanish War Veterans.

FREDERICK R. SMITH

Dr. Frederick R. Smith, who is a candidate for reelection to the office of Supervisor of the Third Ward of the city and a high standing in many fraternal orders and societies. He was born in Port Jervis, N.Y., August 21, 1876. He attended the academy at Port Jervis, after the preparatory school at Poughkeepsie, and then began the study of medicine. After his graduation from the Hahnemann Medical College in Philadelphia he became resident physician of the Hospital for the Deaf and Dumb in Rochester, N.Y., where he was elected to the position of Superintendent. He is a member of the Medical Society of the State of New York, the New York State Homeopathic Society, and the New York State Homeopathic Society.

Dr. Smith is a man of marked executive ability and his reelection is considered certain.

Mr. Westman was born November 1, 1885, and attended Public School No. 17 and the Rochester Free Academy. After his graduation from the Free Academy he attended the University of Rochester and then studied law in the office of Frank Dickerson and Harry Barry, a distinction to the bar in 1910. Since which time he has been associated with William F. Love in the practice of law with office at No. 218 Exchange and Barry Building.

Mr. Westman during his life has been prominently connected with athletic sports of all kinds, having played on the football and baseball teams of the Free Academy, University of Rochester, and other amateur teams of Rochester, and last year did most of the pitching for the indoor baseball team of the Cathedral.

RAYMOND E. WESTBURY

Raymond E. Westbury, candidate for the Republican ticket for reelection as Alderman in the Third Ward, is now completing his third term as a member of the Common Council where his work has always been characterized by a close attention to business and the best interests of his constituents and the city at large. Mr. Westbury entered the law office of William Butler Crittenden after being in business for some time and was admitted to the bar in 1902. Until about a year ago he was in partnership with G. Towley Fries, at which time Mr. Fries left the city

In 1903, Mr. Westbury was elected to the Common Council by a substantial majority. The next election the Civil War and when in 1898 the United States was threatened again, there being no Democratic candidate, two years ago, he showed her of its family for the country's strength by defeating his opponent, when the present candidate for Alderman enlisted in Company, Third New York Volunteer Infantry and served until the end of the war.

GEORGE A. STOFFER

He was elected for the second term to the Board of Supervisors by the Twentieth Ward Democrats. He has a general law understanding and will probably be elected by a large majority. He has made good on the Board of Supervisors on the following committees: Erection of new courts, coroner's and physicians' licenses and charitable institutions.

Supervisor Stoffer was born in 1879 in the Fifteenth Ward and received his education in the parochial schools, graduating from St. Peter and Paul's.

His record is good and he should be returned to the Board of Supervisors by a good majority.

ANDERSON G. SMALL

Nineteenth Ward Republicans are proud of their ticket this fall, but they are especially enthusiastic over the nomination of Anderson G. Small, known affectionately as "Andy". Small by name but big by nature, very aptly fits the genial, sociable and amiable candidate. His smile is as catching as it is wholesome and is an index to his optimistic temperament. Andy was born in

"There are three faithful friends, an old wife, an old dog, and ready money," as Poor Richard says. Money in the savings bank, ready for any emergency is a friend worth having.
A little saved each week will amount to much, if allowed to accumulate; and compound interest too, will do wonders.
You cannot foresee what the emergency will be; may be sickness, or disability; maybe a home in your old age; maybe mere pleasure. But it's worth providing for.
