Plain Lesson

One plain lesson was taught ... recent ... pat election and that is ... the people of Rochester irrespective ... of race or creed are sick and tired ... of our present ... Apparently they are tired of bigotry ... and bigotry because the retired member of the School Board ... to make ... and bear ...

It is said ... "Reform ... twice as ... as ever ... If they ... would ... trary ... pupils ... and ... school ... go to ... do not ... they ... parochial schools ...

Truth ... the home ... lism ... cation ... mind which ... have not ... reached ...

Terms and grades ... have been abolished and teachers promote pupils ... will ... pils in the high schools. Teachers are overworked ... and captious ... and the pupils suffer ... looks like fraud to secure good school advertisements are more than whispered.

Will the member who heads our School Board take warning by the election of a woman to the School Board who is dead opposed to fads and frills who opposes supporting social centers and other forms of entertainment for our alien population and our improvident or fanatical citizens out of the public treasury? Will he dismiss the gentleman who has fastened himself upon Rochester's school system at a salary far beyond what he ever earned in his life at his own calling?

Or will the head of the School Board keep right on in his chosen course until the indignant taxpayers retire him from public life two years hence?

Right Way.

Perhaps it is a heroic measure which has been adopted, but we fancy loyal Catholics the world over will applaud the action taken by the good news of Barcelona to vindicate their good name and also to teach their traducers a salutary lesson.

A foreign cable dispatch gives these particulars:

A short time ago a newspaper in Toulouse—"La Depeche de Toulouse"—in one of its issues made the statement that during the recent disorders in Barcelona numbers of murdered victims and many instruments of torture were discovered by the gentlemen who entered the convents to free the nuns from their thraldom by cutting their throats, and saving them from too much wordly wealth by stealing what could be carried away and putting in flames all irremovables.

But the good Sisters of Barcelona are not going to sit quietly under this grave charge. Under the direction of the Right Rev. Msgr. Santol, vicar capitular of Barcelona, the whole of the twenty-six religious communities have entered a case of libel in the law courts of Toulouse against the "Depeche." The Bishop of Barcelona furnished Msgr. Santol with the full list of the convents, asylums and schools of the Sisters that were entered by the incendiaries during the riots. The whole of the nuns—664 in number—have signed the requisition for the action of slander and they are all prepared to appear in court in defense of the good name of their convents. Thus the newspaper will not be able to ... [illegible] ... all the respectable ... [illegible] ... and ... [illegible] ... the ... [illegible] ...

Perverts"

Cook Opera House

Sig. Molasso ... Artist.

It is believed that Knight Bros. & Sawtelle will win a large share of the honors of the bill as their ... equine swinging and dancing act has long been looked upon as the standard in the vaudeville profession. Among the new acts that will bid for the applause of J. H. Moore's large clientele is the act of the Three Bohemians, strolling minstrels with lilting song and strumming of instruments enhanced by picturesque costumes. Then there will be another new act to Rochester called The Last of the Troupe, presented by Frank Coombs and Muriel Stone. Mr. Coombs will be recalled by some theatergoers as the contra tenor of Duckstaders Minstrels. The Three Famous Hanlons in a comedy hand to hand acrobatic act will also be new here, with Harry Atkinson, the mimetic comedian and Irene LaTour and her famous dog Zaza, together with the Moorescope pictures also in the running.

Baker Theater

For his Thanksgiving week production at the Baker Theater commencing with the matinee next Monday November 22 Mr. Lytell and his company will be seen in an elaborate revival of the best of all the college plays, George Ade's comedy, "The College Widow," which had a long and prosperous run at the Garden Theater in New York. The production will be beautifully mounted with appropriate scenery and effective costumes. The usual matinees will be played on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, with a special matinee on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day.

The football teams of the city will be the guests of Mr. Lytell. The East High School team will occupy the boxes on Friday night, that of West High School on Monday night, and the University of Rochester will be in evidence on Tuesday night. Special features will be introduced by the company in honor of the visiting guests and the boys may be depended on to do their share toward the entertainment of the assembled audience. Seats are now on sale for all performances, including Thanksgiving Day.
