A very notable proclamation independent of the regular autumnal Thanksgiving day, though in the official records it is designated not as a proclamation, but as "the president's address to the people for thanksgive ing and prayer," was McKinley's pro-mulgation of July 6, 1808. The president addressed his words "To the Paople of the United States of America. He referred to the fact that "to the yet fresh remembrance of the unprecedented success which attended the operations of the United States feet in the bay of Manila on the 1st day of May last are added the tidings of the no less glorious achievements of the navat and military arms of our beoved country at Santiago de Cuba" and asked the people upon next assembling for divine worship "to offer thanksgiving to Aimighty God. who has
