It was with much sorrow that the news was brought to us on Tuesday of the death of Bishop Thomas Augustine Hendrick of the diocese of Cebu in the Philippines. After a long illness of cholera Bishop Hendrick finally succumbed to the fatal disease.

He was born at Penn Yan, N. Y., and received his preliminary education in the public schools of that village. He then went to St. John's College in Fordham, and from there he went to Seton Hall College, where he received the Master of Arts degree. Desiring to enter the priesthood, he entered St. Joseph's Archdiocesan Seminary in Troy. He was ordained in 1873 and was assigned to this parish as assistant. While here Father Hendrick made fast friends and was loved and respected by all with whom he came in contact with. He next took charge of the parish at Charlotte and remained there until 1877, when he received a parish at Union Springs. In 1891 he returned to this city and took charge of St. Bridget's, where he remained until 1902, when he was ordained Bishop in Rome. He then took up his duties in Cebu, where he has zealously worked until called to his reward.

There is probably no better known man in Rochester at present than Bishop Hendrick. He has been connected in many city enterprises and has a host of friends, all of whom will sadly regret his loss.

On last Wednesday evening Miss Lucy Hall, Gertrude Hartnett and Frances Gillton, promoters of the Young Ladies Sodality entertained the members. Murray; assistant secretary, Miss Anna McGuire; treasurer, Miss Alma McCarthy; librarian, Miss Ruth Chism.

Sam Chip and Mary Marble will have the distinction of being the first "headliners" to appear on the stage of the Temple Theater, and J. H. Cook Opera House.
"Under Southern Skies," which will be given at Cook Opera House commencing with Monday matinee for three nights and two matinees, needs no introduction to our theatergoers. Its story is a very strong one that touches the heart and rouses the sympathies of the spectator, while its natural scenes of delicious comedy keep an audience in a ripple of laughter. The Halloween games and pumpkin dance make every one feel young and gay with the actors upon the scene, and are this season made entertainingly by entirely new songs and dance figures. New scenery and costumes have also been provided by the management and a thoroughly

Thousands have read of Charlotte Temple. Have weeped over her trials and sufferings. Baker Theater.
Commencing with the Monday matinee, December 6, Bert Lytell and his regular company of players will be seen in an elaborate revival of "Merely Mary Ann," Israel Zangwill's famous comedy drama.
Mr. Lytell has great pleasure in announcing that in this play he will introduce to Rochester theatergoers Miss Katherine Emmett, who has been chosen to succeed Miss Adair as his leading woman. Miss Emmett comes to Rochester with a splendid record of successful stage work, and in the part of "Mary Ann" she will have an opportunity to fully demonstrate the fine quality of her art.

The play is a delightful comedy, full of clean, English humor, spiced with catchy Americanisms. "Merely Mary Ann" is a new version of the fairy tale "Cinderella" in a modern setting. Mr. Lytell will be seen in the role of Lancelot the composer.
On Monday afternoon all ladies attending the matinee and purchasing reserved seat tickets will receive a handsome souvenir autographed photograph of Miss Elizabeth Row, the popular character woman of the Lytell Company. The usual matinee will be given on Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday.
