Purity Bakery. A suitable name for the clean manufactory which daily sends out a multitude of loaves of the staff of life and quantities of kindred articles. Its trade, wholesale and retail, is so large that it makes use of 16,000 square feet of space at 178 State Street and employs many expert bakers. The proprietor, James W. Wood, began the business in 1903. He came from Canada some years before and has become a naturalized American citizen.

Grandma Extract Company.

The Grandma Company—a name which is a tribute to the old-time women—furnishes extracts, perfrumes, baking powder, soap, cold cream and other toilet articles to our daughters and granddaughters of our grandmothers, who used to make some of them at home in old-fashioned ways. D. Elmer Munro is the proprietor and manager at 24 Garden Street. He has a large trade in eastern and middle states, and his sales amount to $10,000 a year.

Boston Bakery, 25 N. Genesee St., Auburn, N. Y. Established 1855. Branch Bakery

149 State St. and 18 1/2 South St. Selling direct from our ovens to the consumer saves the middleman's profit, expense of horse, wagon and driver. This system makes it possible for us to give our customers better goods made from a higher grade of materials. We buy only the best flour, lard, butter, eggs, sugar, spices, flavors and pie fruits.

Electric machinery is used for mixing and our solid brick ovens impart a fine nutty flavor to bread and rolls. Gas ranges furnish the heat for cooking doughnuts, fried cakes and crullers.

Only clean, sober and skilled workmen are employed in our baking department and our customers receive courteous and special attention at our stores.

Our entire plant has recently been put in first class sanitary condition, walls and ceilings whitened, floors oiled, new tile bottoms laid in our ovens, steam and hot water boilers overhauled, more machinery and tools added, and today we have one of the cleanest, most up-to-date bakeries in Auburn.

A quarter century of experience in Buffalo, Syracuse and the city is at the service of our customers, and a younger generation of Kiemole's with a High School training and a knowledge of chemistry, technical and practical baking is coming to our assistance.

Thanking the people of Auburn and vicinity for past favors and soliciting further patronage, we remain,

Respectfully, HENRY KIEMOLE, MRS. BERTHA KIEMOLE, Osborne House

The Osborns' House, on State Street, has long been a well-known and popular hotel, where good rooms and a good table and other pleasing accommodations for its numerous guests are in evidence. It has become a favorite stopping place for the automobilists, who come along closer together each year. The present proprietor, F. F. Dingman, has been in charge since 1901.

Cayuga County and Oskanezy-Dam-Fing Dairies

The company's capable manager in retelling milk and cream is Norman E. Monroe. The company was organized three years ago and later absorbed the Oskanezy-Dam-Fing dairies. It sells pasteurized milk and cream at the regular price of other grades from 12-16 Franklin Street. It is popular, and has so large a trade that it keeps about fifty employees busy.
