

Mary of the Fields

She was standing, with upturned eyes and face that laughed in happy... "Good-by," she was saying. "Good-bye, Jim, I shall come again, and with a graceful wave of a well-kept hand...

AIR TRAITS OF THE CROW.

No bird so detested but none more frequently tamed.

No bird is better known to the farmer than the common American crow. No bird is so detested, but on the other hand none is more frequently tamed.

GOLD SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS.

Doctor Discovers a Method of Tempering Metal to Hardness of Steel.

Despite the vast additions made yearly to the world's stock of gold, the value of that precious metal is well kept up not only by the enlarging need of it for monetary purposes, but also for the multiplying uses of it in the arts and the trades.

FORETOLD KING'S MISFORTUNES

Strange Meeting of Francis Joseph and Sgar in Tyrol Mountain.

The condition of affairs in Austria-Hungary invests with great significance a very remarkable incident in the life of Emperor Francis Joseph which occurred shortly before his marriage in 1854, the details of which have never been made public.

MEANING OF NAMES OF COINS

Significance Attached to Them All Over the World.

The florin—one of the most famous of modern coins—originated in Florence. Some say that it gave the name to the city, while others assert that it was first coined because it had on it a fleur-de-lis—from the Italian for "flower"—for the same reason as an English silver piece is called a "crown," or certain gold pieces in France indifferently a "Napoleon" or "Louis," or the ten-dollar gold piece in America an "eagle."

The New Owner

"Well," whispered Marlon to me, "I guess it doesn't make any difference if we did have to wear silk gowns that you washed, turned, mended and made over. Guess what I just heard."

Be Good For Something. Square yourself for use. A stone that sits on the wall is left by the way. -Parson Preverb.

Hostesses' Troubles. So many people now vegetarians or faddists, nibble nuts, or munch a souffler, that hostesses are driven to their wits' ends to invent new and tasty little dishes and forced to employ French cooks who can serve up eggs and vegetables, macaroni and cheese in a hundred different ways.

Be Good For Something. Sometimes a man thinks he has a good disposition simply because everybody around him takes pains to have things always go his way. -Somerville Journal.

Have You Been There? A gentleman visiting some relatives in Soe and was persuaded to try a slice of kof. At his first stroke he used a terrific blow at the ball, scattering the turf to right and left, and landed around for the result.

It must make a boy parrot feel awfully mad to be called Paily.
