Ryan, Rev. J. B. Keenan, Rev. R. J. Henry, Rev. Luca Nannetti and Rev. C. Cappalino.

The bishop addressed those present, telling them of the worth to the community of a church and exhorting them to take a lively interest in the education of their children.

NOTRE DAME CLUB FORMED.

Former Students and Alumni Organize at Powers Hotel.

Alumni and former students of Notre Dame University dined at Powers Hotel Monday night and organized a Rochester club with the following officers: President, Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Hickey; first vice president, Cyril Curran, '11; second vice president, James Love, '95; counselor, Richard Callon, '84; secretary, James Touhey, '08; treasurer, Gilbert Marcille, '11; spiritual advisor, Rev. J. F. O'Hern; honorary president, Rev. John Kavanaugh, president of Notre Dame University; honorary vice president, Rev. Thomas Cromley, vice president of Notre Dame.

After the dinner Bishop Hickey spoke along the general lines of Catholic education and brief remarks were made by nearly all the officers. The dinner was largely attended and each member was enthusiastic for the club's success.

It was decided that the club shall meet monthly at Cathedral Hall. A committee appointed to draft by-laws and a constitution will make its report at the February meeting.

Efforts will be made to have clubs formed in other cities and villages, to the end that a federation of Notre Dame men may be organized to embrace all Western New York.

Auburn, N. Y.

The many parochial schools of the city opened for the final semster on Monday.

The feast of Epiphany was celebrated in the church on Thursday with special services. The day was not a holiday of obligation but is one of the high feast days.

The local branch 179, L. C. B. A., held the installation of officers in the lodge rooms on Franklin Street last night. The members turned out in good numbers. After the installation the entertainment committee served ice cream and cake and coffee to the members present.

Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus, is receiving the thanks of the other councils of the Fortieth district for the manner in which they handled the recent third degree of the district in this city. The members of the council took care of the six hundred visitors in fine shape. The entertainment and luncheon served was one of the best in the history of the order.

Frank Flynn has returned to this city to take up his work with the Richardson company.

Mayor-elect O'Neill is receiving the congratulations of his friends on taking up the reins of the city government.

The eleventh euchre party in the series for the members of St. Mary's Church was given in Lyceum Hall on Wednesday night. The party was under the direction of Mrs. James Hollihan and Mrs. John Sullivan. One of the largest crowds of the year took part in the games played. These parties will continue until the Lenten season opens.

Cook Opera House.

The popularity of Geo. Barr McCutcheon's "Graustark," which in book form was a probably successful one, is cause enough for theatergoers to wish to see the play which has been dramatized by Geo. D. Baker, with McCutcheon's book as the basis.

The story of the two Americans, who, through pluck and brilliancy, latent qualities in our people, manage to overcome the many intrigues and plots against them and finally win out the lady each of them is in love with, is a pretty one.

"Graustark," will be the attraction at the Cook Opera House, playing an engagement in this city, starting with Monday matinee and should duplicate the tremendous success scored last season in other cities.

Temple Theater.

Irene Franklin, voted "Queen of Vaudeville" by the New York vaudeville patrons, will make her third annual appearance in Rochester, at the Temple Theater next week. Miss Franklin will as formerly be assisted at the piano by Burt Green, the composer, who wrote all the songs that Miss Franklin sings and that she has copyrighted.

The special feature attraction of equal importance to Irene Franklin, is Grigolati's Aerial Bullet, presented in this city for the first time. Following is the striking musical act of the Exposition Four.

The star singing feature will be provided by Horace Wright and Rene Dietrich.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Murphy will be seen in a new comedy called "Clancy's Ghost." Thom come Harry DeCoe and Helene Greatrex. The former is an equilibrist and the latter is a charming whistler. Radford and Winchester, comedy jugglers and the standard Temploscope pictures completes the show.

Baker Theater.

For his next attraction commencing Monday, January 10, Bert Lytell has prepared a pleasing surprise for his patrons, having secured Grace Hayward's dramatization of Augusta Evans Wilson's world famous book, "St. Elmo" and will make the first presentation of this great play in Rochester by any company. "St. Elmo" is one of the greatest theatrical successes of the theatrical season and Mr. Lytell's enterprise in securing this fine version will no doubt be rewarded by record breaking houses. The New York Dramatic Mirror in a review of the play says: It is a typical play for the masses and the author of the play has preserved not only the atmosphere but the language of the book, and the characters hold forth in the ceremonious periods of the society of the old South.

Mr. Lytell will be seen as St. Elmo Murray and Miss Emmet as Edna Earl. Seats are now on sale for all performances and matinees will be played on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

Clean Macaroni

Many people are prejudiced against macaroni because of its supposed uncleanliness. Some macaroni is unclean. The modern, hygienic process of making and curing Woodcock Macaroni, put up in air-tight packages makes it absolutely clean, pure and wholesome. It is made by a special sanitary process from the finest wheat grown in this country, and contains all the rich, beautiful gluten which is lost in most macaroni but which is necessary to a perfect food. Be sure you get Woodcock Macaroni. All grocers.
