Mem of Straw.
Of late there have appeared here in the despatches alleged accounts of what are termed wholesale withdrawals from the Catholic Church to Protestantism.

Jubilee.
Fitting, indeed, was the splendid celebration in New York last week in commemoration of the golden-jubilee of the institution of the Paulist Fathers that noted American order of missionary priests which has done so much toward spreading the Gospel and quickening the Faith in these United States.

New Diocese.
Archbishop Ireland has made public announcement of the erection of two new dioceses in the Northwest. His Grace says: "The recommendation of the Bishops of the ecclesiastical province of St. Paul that two new dioceses be formed in the Northwest has been favorably acted upon in Rome. They are that of Crookston, in Northwestern Minnesota, and that of Bismarck, in Western North Dakota.

but it cannot be denied that they had their reward. The fruition of their fifty years of labor is now seen.

Besides the mother house in New York the Paulists now have flourishing parishes in Chicago and San Francisco while a third in Winchester, Tennessee has been of great service in the South. Especially have the Paulists had great success in winning non-Catholics to the Faith and one feature of their missions invariably is a series of sermons to non-Catholics.

Again, we repeat that it was fitting that the golden jubilee of the Paulists should be observed in a splendid manner as, indeed, it was. Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Farley and other high dignitaries took part and our own Bishop Hickey preached one of the sermons.

Judgment.
Terrible, indeed, is the tale which comes from overseas about the floods in France. Fertile territories have been laid waste and worse than Paris, frivolous Paris, wicked Paris, is a veritable ruin. Fine palaces have been undermined and splendid galleries have been swept aside by the rushing water.

What wonder that the believers in God and Religion see in this awful visitation the wrath of a justly angered Deity visited as a judgment on the country which has dared to exalt Reason in place of God, that has persecuted, reviled and insulted His priests and have scourged those who remained true to their Faith and refused to be turned aside to worship of false Gods even when threatened with direst penalties.

Let us hope that the French people in their desolation will return to the God of their forefathers those we mean who would have dropped in at the St. Louis De Gonzaga Church, Woonsocket. Meanwhile let all good Catholics pray that God's wrath be stayed and also for the souls who that were hurried into Purgatory by the visitation that has befallen France.

One of the last Bishops appointed by the servant of God Pius IX, was Mgr. Gruscha, who two years later became Archbishop of Vienna, and on June 1, 1891, was created Cardinal Priest of the Title of Santa Maria degli Angeli. On November 3 last His Eminence entered his ninetieth year, so it is not surprising to learn that the Holy Father has given him a coadjutor, with right of succession. Vienna is one of the most important dioceses in the world, with its two and a quarter millions of Catholics, its various rites, its nearly fifteen hundred priests, its dignity as a principedom of the Holy Roman Empire, and great satisfaction has been everywhere expressed at the announcement that the choice of the Holy See for the coadjutor has fallen on Mgr. Nagl, Bishop of Trieste, who spent a great part of his life in Rome as rector of the Teutonic Church and Institute of Santa Maria dell' Anima.

Holy Name banquets and celebrations are coming so frequently that the community is beginning to take notice.

Missions in Washington: "President Taft in making his appointments has endeavored to place in office men who will treat all American citizens justly and impartially, without regard to race or creed. The bureau believes that with Richard A. Ballinger as Secretary of the Interior, Robert G. Valentine as Commissioner of Indian Affairs the Indians will be accorded just and sympathetic treatment, and the Catholic missions protected and encouraged in the same manner and degree as the missions of the Protestant denominations, and that the work of Christianizing the Indians will be upheld in every way."
