Get Genuine Macaroni

The false macaroni looks like the true. The true, however, is vastly more delicious and the nutriment derived much greater. Woodcock Macaroni is the true macaroni, and being made from Argal-wheat granules, is nearly all nutrition, whereas ordinary macaroni contains less than half. Request your grocer to supply Woodcock Macaroni, and do not accept substitutes or imitations—there are hundreds of them on the market. Large package, 15c.
