AMATEURS TO APPEAR IN COMEDY

K. of C. Club to Give "Mrs. Temple's Telegram."
Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, will present its annual dramatic offering at the Lyceum Theater on Monday evening, April 25th, when "Mrs. Temple's Telegram," a comedy, will be given.
The Dramatic Club of Rochester Council is a permanent organization, and its members are all experienced amateurs. Richard Baker, who has had charge of this club since its beginning, will come from Albany every Sunday to rehearse the comedy.
In the cast will be Miss Mary Louise Maloy, who will be seen in the name part, Miss Clara Rinn, Miss Mayme Magill, Miss Bertha Gaussin, Thomas B. Garvey, Angelo J. Newman, Dr. J. Henry Carrey, Edward F. Conway and Harry B. Crowley.

Whom Will You Vote for To Succeed James Breck Perkins as Representative of This County in Congress?

The Election Is Tuesday, April 19th.
Polls Open 6 A. M. to 5 P. M.

WHAT I STAND FOR.

- For independence of all Political Bosses, Democratic or Republican.
For government in the interest of the people and not the trusts.
For the removal of the tax on lumber in the interest of cheaper houses, lower rents and the preservation of our forests.
For removal of the tax on iron ore, for the benefit of all industries using iron and steel.
For such a revision of the duties on wool and woolen goods as will bring all-wool goods within the reach of all.
For Reciprocity with Canada as advocated by progressive leaders in all parties and by President McKinley in his last speech delivered at Buffalo on McKinley Day.
For an honest effort to reform the tariff schedules in the interest of the consumer as advocated by the lamented James Breck Perkins and all progressive men in both parties.
Against the sale of legislation or its exchange for personal or political contributions from those benefited thereby.
For action upon all proposed legislation independent of any improper or selfish influence of a friend, client, political supporter or organization.
I am pledged not to represent as a lawyer, while a Member of Congress, or receive compensation from, any individual or corporation that may have an interest in legislation.
For a Parcels Post, because I believe the people need and should have it.
For a Workmen's Compensation Act, similar to the English Act, in order that every workman injured at his work, or his family if he be killed, may get a reasonable compensation without the expense or delay of litigation. Intelligent employers who have examined this plan agree that it is best for all.
For Postal Savings Bank to encourage savings among those who do not now use the present savings banks.
For an amendment to the Federal Constitution permitting a just income tax, under which the burden of taxation will be distributed in proportion to what the taxpayer receives from the government and in proportion to his ability to pay.

Temple Theater.
The Temple Theater will make a great showing of star acts this coming week, a showing that includes the moving pictures of ex-President Roosevelt in the African jungle. The headline position has been reserved for the George V. Hobart comedy skit "Dicklespiel's Christmas." Patrons of J. H. Moore's vaudeville will be pleased to learn of the return of Laddie Cliff, the English boy comedian.
Other acts on the bill are Mary Norman, the society caricaturist; Waterbury Bros. & Tenny, in comedy and music; Hawthorne & Burt, the Hebrew comedians; Selbini & Crovini, in acrobatic surprises; and Belleclair & Hermann, marvelous strong men.

Cook Opera House.
It would seem that the association with the part of the money baron in "The Lion and the Mouse" has given Oliver Doud Byron, who will appear in the Patrick Henry's Fee.

It is said of Patrick Henry that during his practice of law in the Virginia courts and when he was familiarly addressed as "governor" a man who had been arrested for stealing a hog and who was out on bail went to the governor to have him defend him.
The governor said, "Did you walk away with that beast?"
"I don't like to say."
"Out with it."
"Ye, sir."
"Have you got the carcass?"
"Ye, sir."
"You go home, you wretch, cut the pig lengthwise in half and hang as much of it to my smokehouse as you keep in yours."
At court the governor said, "Your honor, this man has no more of that stolen beast than I have."
The man was cleared.—National Monthly.

A Lincoln Story.
When Lincoln, a struggling lawyer, was doing circuit duty in Ohio he once visited a country town where the general storekeeper had the reputation of adulterating, even to the danger point, his cider. In the midst of a general condemnation of this storekeeper Lincoln rose one night from his seat by the hotel stove.
"Come on, boys," he said.
And he led a party of a half dozen lawyers and judges to the general store.
"Let me have a quart of cider," he said to the storekeeper.
"Ye, sir," was the cordial reply.
"And which grade, sir—the ripe, at 2 cents; the mellow, at 2, or the new, at 1?"
"It doesn't matter which grade, mister," Lincoln drawled. "I only want to poison a dog."

The Inventor of the Match.
The first match was the product of the ingenuity of John Frederick Kommer, who early in the nineteenth century was imprisoned in the penitentiary at Hohenzollern, in Germany. He invented the lucifer match while in his gloomy dungeon. The German government forbade the manufacture of matches on the ground of public policy because some children playing with them had caused a fire. Kommer never stops to think. He—and when a man is ruined by Venetian competition woman starts she never thinks to did a pauper. Up to 1882 the Vienna manufacturers controlled the match business of the entire world.

Friendly Advice.
Mrs. Jawback—The doctor says I must sleep with my mouth shut. How can I get into the habit? Mr. Jawback—Try practicing it when you are asleep.—Cleveland Leader.

The Difference.
She—When a man starts to talk he never stops to think. He—And when a woman starts she never thinks to do a pauper. Up to 1882 the Vienna manufacturers controlled the match business of the entire world.
