Jungle Housekeeping. The negro housewife in the West Indian jungle finds housekeeping very easy. Fruit and vegetable grow wild all about the hut and the river abounds with fish...

Not For Himself. It does the good that a man gets his soul a little better. I have a friend who just about believes the Lord created the earth in seven days for his especial benefit...

An Experience at Hull House. Even death itself sometimes fails to bring the dignity and serenity which one would find associate with old age...

Empty Titles. William Jennings Bryan once joked about our American fondness for titles. "You all know of the colonel," he said...

Fear. Fear causes more disease than do microbes, more deaths than famine, more failures than panic. It costs more than war, is always a failure and is never necessary...

Simplified Spelling. "Why did you take Elmore away from school, Aunt Mahaly?" a lady asked her cook one day. Aunt Mahaly snuffed scornfully...

Not Strong Minded. "Your wife, Clark, is I should say, a strong minded lady." "There you would be wrong. I should rather describe her as brittle minded."

An Easy Arrangement. Wife—Am I, then, never to have my way in anything? Husband—Certainly, dear. When we are both agreed you can have your way. When we differ I'll have mine.

Notes Of the Sportsmen

THE recent announcement that Fielder Jones, the former great manager of the Chicago American league team, who retired from the diamond two years ago...

With a paying team in Cleveland other teams in the circuit would be benefited and it is argued that Fielder Jones is just the man who could make the Naps winners of next winter...
