A Santanic Repast.

Very often the question is asked "Why Cannot Catholics join the Masonic order?"

Possibly, that may be true of the Masonic fraternity in the United States so far as its average membership is concerned.

Each service was dressed out in clerical qualifications, as Langouste in Cardinale, "Sauce Turquoise," "Poulets de grains de chapelet," etc.

The "Republique" adds: "All this shows a most formal sacrilegious intention to turn our holy religion into ridicule, even in its most sacred rites, and we are not surprised."

Philip R. McDevitt, Superintendent of Parish Schools in Philadelphia, completed twenty-five years in the priesthood recently.

A calumny, though known to be such, generally leaves a stain on the reputation. A candle lights others and consumes itself. A faithful companion is a sure anchor.

Why A Catholic Paper?

In the secular press of Rochester and elsewhere, every day or so lately there have appeared columns upon columns of carefully prepared articles, copiously illustrated, which give an entirely misleading notion of the situation in Spain where the Church and Christianity itself are engaged in a life and death struggle with the atheistic and infidel Free Masons who seek to crush out Christianity, root and branch.

No secular paper in the United States, so far as we know, has reproduced the noble letter of the Spanish Hierarchy on the proposed alteration in the Concordat. And yet this document was the simply unanswerable in its arguments against the attempted encroachment by Crown, through the Prime Minister, on the rights of the clergy, as set forth and country did not and does not guarantee by solemn treaty, countenance such a Satanic renege between the two high contracting parties. Neither has any reference been made to the reply of the French Government to the Ministerial and sold to a prominent Free Mason, who had remodeled the present inflated state of the it, a "housewarming" was held, according to a LaRepublique. This policy of one-sided publicity of Tours, every method to insult Catholics and to deride the Catholic profession and faith was employed. The revel was held in the college chapel and, so that there could be no balking of the fact that a church was in process of profanation, the menu comprised the following titles: "In-troit," "Epi-tle," "Gospel," "Offering," etc.

Says the "Pittsburg Catholic": Giving up the Presbyterian re-troit, "Epi-tle," "Gospel," "Offering," etc.

During his visit to Montreal as Legate at the Eucharistic Con-gress, Cardinal Vannutelli will be accompanied by Msgr. Prince Ferdinand de Croy, Protonotary Mons. in Belgium; by Msgr. Sante Tamperio, of the secretariate of state, Rome; and by Mr. Thomas Hughes Kelly, one of the Holy Father's Chamberlains of Sword and Cape.

Prelates and priests from the dioceses of western Canada at-tended the consecration of Rev. A. U. de Pencier, M.A., as Catho-lic Bishop of New Westminster. The solemn service was held in St. Paul's church, Vancouver, and was the first ceremony of its kind ever taken place in British Columbia.

Rev. M. I. Stritch, S. J., of De-troit college, has gone to Creigh-ton University, Omaha, where he will spend several weeks in a supplementary study of astron-omy. Father Stritch is already a great student of astronomy and hopes to better equip himself for a series of lectures on the sub-ject he expects to give next win-ter.

Passed Her on the Back.

Teanyson on one occasion on board the royal yacht at the request of the then Princess of Wales read "The Grandmother" "I read it," said Teanyson, in a cabin on deck. The princess sat close to me on one side and a young lady whom I didn't know of the other. The wind came through an open window and the princess whispered, "Put on your hat, but I said I ought, if possible to make my self bolder than ever before so many by-athles. She said again, "Oh put it on" so I did and I heard afterward that the king of Denmark's court local, who was in the background (they really kept a court foot), remarked, "He may be laureate but he has not a word court matters." When I was gone the ladies praised me, and I put the unknown one on the back by way of reply, and presently I found out she was the empress of Russia? "Had you any talk with the czar?" "Hardly any. He said he couldn't speak English. Perhaps he was dis-satisfied at my putting his wife on the back. His head was up in the cabin sitting as he walked about below."

Ultra Practical. "I notice," said a husband who was reading a lengthy letter which his wife had written and had handed to him for perusal, "that you have made a stupid mistake. You have written 'ultra ge' instead of 'marriage'."

Sure Thing. "So Jack and Tom proposed last night. Which did you accept?" "W by, my dear, I was so excited I can't remember. But whichever calls tonight must be the one."—Spokane Spook-eman Review.
