

Which Will It Be?

One of These Women to Be Mistress of Executive Mansion at Albany.

Mrs. Stimson—Mrs. Dix.

No matter whether a Republican or a Democrat is elected governor of New York state, the executive mansion at Albany is sure to have a charming and accomplished chatelaine.

Mrs. Stimson, wife of the Republican candidate, is a highly intellectual woman. One of her grandfathers was a physician at Yale, and her father and brothers are all Yale men.

Mrs. Dix, wife of the Democratic candidate, who was Miss Gertrude Thomson of Thomson, N. Y., which town was named in honor of Laton Thomson, Mrs. Dix's father, is a handsome woman, who is always gowned in the latest French creations.

Things That Kerosene Will Do. Kerosene is an unpleasantly odorous commodity, but it has many uses that the housekeeper should know of.

Invitations to Children's Parties. Good form requires that all invitations of both girls and boys shall be issued in the names of their parents or of one of the guardians with whom they live.

My Dear Mary—Will you not give Anna and me the pleasure of your presence at a birthday party we are giving for her on Thursday, the 26th?

A Social Duty. To send a box of candy, a book or a box of flowers after having made a short visit is a tactful act which costs little either in time or money.

Good Form

Women who are polite in all other places sometimes are positively rude at card tables.

However different one may be in fact when one is losing, and few persons are as interested when the cards are against them, it is a matter of good breeding to pretend as much enjoyment as when success is on her side.

Courtesy at all times desirable, at cards should be regarded as imperative. To comment unfavorably upon the playing of a hand is the height of ill manners and need not be excused on the ground of instructing the ignorant.

At a bridge luncheon recently the players at one table were amused to hear at the completion of every hand a lecture by one of the guests. The woman who talked played well—all admitted that—but the afternoon was not a class in card playing.

The woman who loses her temper with her partner commits an unpardonable breach of good manners. No one is enough to control the tongue alone at such times.

Automobile Etiquette. It looks unconventional for a young girl to go automobiling with several young men unless they are relatives, for somehow it is suggestive of a "sporty" tendency on her part, and so the one girl in a group of men is never quite as delicately treated by the world as is the maid who has some body of her own sex in her company.

Proper dress for motoring depends upon the excursion itself, whether taken in town or in the country or if the trip is to be long or short.

Invitations to Children's Parties. Good form requires that all invitations of both girls and boys shall be issued in the names of their parents or of one of the guardians with whom they live.

My Dear Mary—Will you not give Anna and me the pleasure of your presence at a birthday party we are giving for her on Thursday, the 26th?

A Social Duty. To send a box of candy, a book or a box of flowers after having made a short visit is a tactful act which costs little either in time or money.

WHY NOT THIS?

Tibet Headdress Might Be Adapted to American Styles.

THE PAGON HEADDRESS WORN IN TIBET.

Take off the pigtails and this head dress worn by the upper class women of Tibet might adorn the pretty head of America's upper tennismen.

This costly piece of Tibetan head gear is interwoven with the wearer's hair and is ornamented with many turquoise corals and small pearls.

For the woman who likes red and is fond of adding eccentric garments to her wardrobe comes the chanticleer's necktie jacket—a gorgeous affair in cockscomb red satin. Lace medallions are used as a border trimming and feather.

When is a polo coat not a polo coat? That is the question which may be answered in the same breath—when you see it worn by smart girls and women as an outing wrap, for motor ing, on the tennis court as a blanket for the feminine champion as she stands to receive the congratulations of her friends after the game these cold autumn days.

THE CHANTICLEER DRESSING JACKET.

Proper dress for motoring depends upon the excursion itself, whether taken in town or in the country or if the trip is to be long or short.

Invitations to Children's Parties. Good form requires that all invitations of both girls and boys shall be issued in the names of their parents or of one of the guardians with whom they live.

My Dear Mary—Will you not give Anna and me the pleasure of your presence at a birthday party we are giving for her on Thursday, the 26th?

A Social Duty. To send a box of candy, a book or a box of flowers after having made a short visit is a tactful act which costs little either in time or money.

THE POLO COAT.

It's the Smart Outing Wrap of the Season.

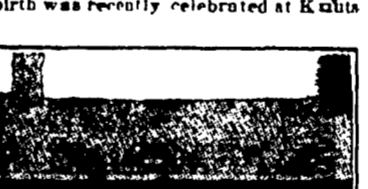

THE NEW POLO COAT.

When is a polo coat not a polo coat? That is the question which may be answered in the same breath—when you see it worn by smart girls and women as an outing wrap, for motor ing, on the tennis court as a blanket for the feminine champion as she stands to receive the congratulations of her friends after the game these cold autumn days.

The material of the polo coat is not unlike a heavy eiderdown fabric and a snuff brown shade is the approved color of Dame Fashion.

Where "Cranford" Was Written. To lovers of that English classic "Cranford" this picture of the house which in Manchester England, where Mrs. Gaskell wrote her inimitable story will doubtless be of great interest.

After Dinner Coffee. Cafe noir is a strong decoction of black coffee which is served in small black cups and is often flavored with a teaspoonful of brandy, or it may be sweetened with a spoonful of stiffly whipped cream on the top of each cup.

THE MANCHESTER HOUSE, WHERE MRS. GASKELL SPENT MOST OF HER MARRIED LIFE.

Bird's Nest Pudding. Pare and core six large, sound apples, then put them into your well buttered biscuit pan; mix together five heaping teaspoonfuls of flour, one scant teaspoonful of salt and one cupful of milk into a smooth paste.

Going Motoring. Have you seen the new knitted hoods with border and ties that are brought round the neck, cross in front and tie at back? They are cone shape like the caps of early Tudor reign.

New Employment for Women. A new employment for women which is most profitable is that of entertaining invalids. A young woman student in one of the larger cities found that there was an opening for some one who could play games with persons recovering from illness, and the demand was so great that all her spare time was occupied in this manner.

Shell and rub off the inner skin of sufficient roasted peanuts to measure one pint when chopped fine. Cream two tablespoonfuls of butter and one cupful of sugar; add three eggs, two tablespoonfuls of milk, one-quarter of a teaspoonful of salt, the chopped nuts and sufficient flour to make a soft dough.

To Whip Cream. If the bowl of cream is kept in a pan of ice water during beating, there will not be the embarrassment of seeing it come to butter when butter is the last thing that is wanted.

Cookery Points

For the Children

A Hippo Very Patiently and Quietly Waiting For His Dinner.

Above is the portrait of the largest hippopotamus in the New York zoo. He is hungry and waiting for the attendant to bring his dinner along.

Apples Parfaits. Pare some firm cooking apples and cook them gently in a thin strap of sugar and water to which a few drops of lemon juice have been added.

Apple Cutlets. Make a stiff apple puree, sweeten to taste and stir in a little softened gelatin. Set aside to cool.

Watermelon mixed with two or three tablespoonfuls of minced crisply fried bacon and dressed with vinegar, salt and pepper makes a tasty supper salad.

For a cheese custard for a substantial dish or an entree, mash a cup of sweetened or curdled milk, add one egg and a teaspoonful of butter.

Where "Cranford" Was Written. To lovers of that English classic "Cranford" this picture of the house which in Manchester England, where Mrs. Gaskell wrote her inimitable story will doubtless be of great interest.

After Dinner Coffee. Cafe noir is a strong decoction of black coffee which is served in small black cups and is often flavored with a teaspoonful of brandy, or it may be sweetened with a spoonful of stiffly whipped cream on the top of each cup.

Bird's Nest Pudding. Pare and core six large, sound apples, then put them into your well buttered biscuit pan; mix together five heaping teaspoonfuls of flour, one scant teaspoonful of salt and one cupful of milk into a smooth paste.

Going Motoring. Have you seen the new knitted hoods with border and ties that are brought round the neck, cross in front and tie at back? They are cone shape like the caps of early Tudor reign.

New Employment for Women. A new employment for women which is most profitable is that of entertaining invalids. A young woman student in one of the larger cities found that there was an opening for some one who could play games with persons recovering from illness, and the demand was so great that all her spare time was occupied in this manner.

Shell and rub off the inner skin of sufficient roasted peanuts to measure one pint when chopped fine. Cream two tablespoonfuls of butter and one cupful of sugar; add three eggs, two tablespoonfuls of milk, one-quarter of a teaspoonful of salt, the chopped nuts and sufficient flour to make a soft dough.

To Whip Cream. If the bowl of cream is kept in a pan of ice water during beating, there will not be the embarrassment of seeing it come to butter when butter is the last thing that is wanted.

What Feet Are These? There's a foot that's played all over our land. There's a foot that is often seen in the sand. There's a foot that crosses many a stream.

Answers.—Football, footprint, foot-bridge, footboard, foot soldier, foot-rifle, footstool, footstep.

What is a soldier's definition of a "kiss"? A report at headquarters. Why is a crow like a lawyer? He likes to have his caws (laws) heard.

When will there be only twenty-five letters in the alphabet? When U and I are one.