A Watch for Christmas.

Where is the boy who would not welcome a watch in his Christmas stocking, the woman who would not be delighted with a pretty timepiece, or the man who would not be pleased with a reliable watch on Christmas morning?

It is a gift that never fails to please and that serves as a reminder of the day and the donor for years to come.

A word regarding our watches seems particularly appropriate at this time.

There are plain, engine turned and engraved cases, either open face or hunting case styles, in a very large assortment of sizes and patterns; there are Swiss and several makes of American movements; there are ladies' watches, men's watches, boys' watches.

An especially good value is our lady's open face watch in 20 year gold filled case, at $8.25.

Same in hunting case, $9.

Other styles, both open face and hunting cases, up to $30.

Ladies' solid gold watches, from $15 to $50.

In men's watches we call special attention to the splendid value in this open face twenty year gold filled case with Waltham movement, at $7.50.

Others in open face and hunting case styles up to $30.

A splendid watch in nickel or gunmetal case with good Swiss movement, open face style, for $4.50.

Other styles up to $25.
