

WANTS FOR THE BUSY HOUSEWIFE

Easy Chair Fitted With Pneumatic Cushions.

Pictured in the accompanying engraving is a section of a chair fitted with pneumatic cushions...

Fricassee of Fowl.

Take a fowl as plump and tender as you can get, clean it thoroughly and wash inside and out...

Potato Chowder.

Cut a slice of salt pork in dice and fry until brown, adding a small onion sliced very thin...

Black Fruit Cake.

Take three eggs and two cups of sugar, one cup of butter, milk and molasses, one teaspoonful of soda...

Kidney Bean Succotash.

Take the amount of kidney beans desired and soak overnight in the morning place on stove and add salt...

New England Clam Chowder.

Fry some salt pork, cut into small pieces. Cut up five small onions and fry with the pork about ten minutes...

Beefsteak With Dressing.

Broil steak and season on a platter as usual. Make a dressing of bread-crumbs with plenty of onion in it...

Baked Apple Sauce.

Pare and chop the apples, put in pudding dish, sprinkle well with sugar, add enough boiling water to one-third fill the dish...

HUMOROUS QUIPS

Heaven Bless 'Em.

When the horses slip and tumble in the wind whips by streets, When the "L" road patrons shiver, huddled in their chilly seats...

The Bait.

"See here," said the quick lunch customer to the waiter, "why is it that you are always out of the 'specialty' you advertise?"

Found His Vocation.

Mrs. Simper—Have you picked out a profession for little Willy yet? Mrs. Sharrier—Oh, yes. We are going to make a doctor of him.

Timely Discovery.

Scribenton (with newspaper)—And now they're using large electro-magnets for raising sunken metal. Dobberton—I wonder if I could borrow a small one somewhere.

An Unnecessary Expense.

The Mother—Now that Tillie is going to the young ladies' seminary she needs a new wardrobe. The Father—How much? "Oh, a couple of thousand."

Or Ever Will Be.

My Traveler—I hear young May Peck is quite a belle now. They say she is prettier now than she ever was.

An Effective Way.

"Did Jones finally get a separation from his wife?" asked Milligan. "Yes," said Willoughby. "Renov" asked Milligan.

Quip Work.

"Did you get your interview with the distinguished personage?" asked the editor. "Yes," replied the alert scribe; "here it is. And here's his denial of it, ready to be printed the day following."

Fortunate.

P.—It seems his uncle fell out of a hotel window in Europe. Q.—Gracious! Any bones broken? "No," he was merely drowned. It happened in Venice."—New York Journal.

Corner Grocery Regardie.

"Say," said the loafer, who was holding down the cracker barrel, "did you ever see a brick walk?" "No," answered the grocer, "but I've heard a college yell."—Chicago News.

Fond of Music.

"She seems to be very fond of music." "Yes, indeed. You'll always find her at the piano when her mother is washing the dishes."—Detroit Free Press.

Compliments.

"What are those edged compliments, ma?" "The nice things your father and uncle tell me when they come home late at night."—Judge.

High Ones.

Mrs. Styles—I see that aviation hats for women are all the rage. Mr. Styles—Indeed! And what's the altitude record, please?—Yonkers Statesman.

A Requisite of Success.

"So you are sure that your new play will be a success?" "Certain. Why, even the manager blushed when he read it."—Chicago Tribune.

Appropriate.

"We must scale down the amusements of the children." "Then make this snowman time a sliding scale."—Baltimore American.

SNAPSHOTS AT CELEBRITIES

Louis D. Brandeis, Expert in Business Economy.

Louis D. Brandeis, who recently told the railroads of the country that he could show them how to save $1,000,000 a day, has been a laborer for the public weal for sixteen years without pay.

An English Apology.

Shortly after Richard Croker established his home in Ireland an English periodical stated that he had made his first step in the world knocking out his gymnastic instructor in a fiercely fought three round battle.

Back to the Farm For Mr. Brown.

To be just plain Farmer Brown is the ambition of William O. Brown, president of the New York Central railway system. In a recent address he admitted that the lure of the land was calling and intimating a purpose soon to retire from railroading and pursue the simple life of husbandry.

Photo by American Express Association.

WILLIAM O. BROWN.

Farms owned by rich men not dependent on them for a living. Mr. Brown is a native of New York state, fifty-seven years old, and began his railroad career as a wood chopper in 1869.

Earth, Sun and Moon.

If the earth is represented by a large marble, an inch in diameter, then the moon will be a small pea, two and one-half feet away, and the sun a silver globe at a distance of 820 yards.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Birthday Surprises.

The little girl who liked to sew but couldn't bear to read—oh, no!—had birthday boxes, strange to relate. A row of books beside her plate instead of a new workbox—dear!

The Loving-Cup.

There are a great many stories told of the origin of the loving cup, and perhaps the following is the most interesting: In the eleventh century Margaret Atheling, the wife of Malcolm K. Coumore, became disgraced with the way in which the Scotch nobles left the dining table before her chaplain.

A Life Saving Elephant.

A few years ago two children were bathing in the sea at a little town on the coast of France when suddenly, for some reason or other, they were carried out of their depth.

About the Pelican.

This bird is found spread over many portions of Africa and Asia and is also found in some parts of southern Europe. The wings of the pelican are very strong and powerful.

Very Curious.

Among the cur's possessions are some ancient coins, which came to light in a curious manner. Some years ago a certain man observed these coins that the people of the Coast of Anjou had discovered in his garden.

Clever Johnny.

Teacher—Why is a field of grass like a person older than yourself? Johnny—Because it is past your age (pasture). Teacher—What is the best way to raise strawberries? Johnny—With a spoon.

Mother's Care.

My baby surely is a cur. The doctor said she must have an AND so, in spite of wind and weather she and I go out together. She's mother's letter. I can see that it's father's hand on it.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

Johnny Kling, Who Sank Match With De Oro.

Johnny Kling is the latest one who is anxious to try his skill in a match with Alfred De Oro, the present holder of the world's pool title.

Authorities Join in a Good Season.

Milton Henry, the American Jockey, has returned to New York after seven years spent on the French turf in the employ of Baron Rothschild.

Turner Has a Slip on the Beach.

Turner has a slip on the beach at Chantilly, where the two former American jockeys intend to establish a breeding farm and will then start their own horses for the French turf.

Madame's Challenge to the World.

Yusef Mahomet, the Bulgarian wrestler, through his manager, has challenged the heavyweight champion of the world following the positive statement of Frank Gotch that he had retired from the mat in good and sure world-wide fame.

How to Lead Yale Next Season.

Arthur Howe of South Orange, N. J., has been elected to captain the Yale eleven next season. Howe was a logical choice for the captaincy and his selection has been generally conceded.

How to Lead Yale Next Season.

Arthur Howe of South Orange, N. J., has been elected to captain the Yale eleven next season. Howe was a logical choice for the captaincy and his selection has been generally conceded.

OPPOSED TO SUFFRAGETTES

Protestant Ministers in London

The protestant ministers in London have expressed their opposition to the suffragettes. They have issued a statement in which they declared that they were opposed to the demand for the extension of the franchise to women.