FOR THE CHILDREN

"I've Been to London."

The children being seated in a circle, the leader says to his next neighbor on the left, "I've been to London. The second child asks, "What did you buy?"

SNAPSHOTS AT CELEBRITIES

E. D. White, Chief Justice of the United States.

Edward Douglass White of Louisiana, the new chief justice of the United States, has been on the supreme bench since 1914.

WHIPPED THE LEOPARD.

But It Took a Troop of Baboons to Kill the Big Cat. A vivid pen picture of a fight between a leopard and a troop of baboons is given in a German paper by a hunter, a sportsman and explorer in the West Africa. Leopards have a particular liking for baboon flesh which is often used as bait to trap them.

WASHING FURNITURE.

Easy to Restore Tarnished Places to Original Freshness. Very few people know that furniture ought to be washed, said a salesman in the furniture section of a large department store.

A RECORD FALL.

It Was Remarkable Not For Distance, but For Results. Writing in 1841 of a fall from an immense altitude which did not result in death, a French observer, M. Maudslayi, declares that he had searched vainly in the annals of science for a similar case.

QUESTIONS OF TRIPLET.

The question of punishment for poor scholars is found in Tiber. A priest dressed in his most gorgeous robes of yellow silk with his tailor on his head will hear two boys to the questions then gravely.

KING OF THE CASTLE.

The king is chosen by any one of the counting-out rhymes. Fate therefore having selected all but one, he takes possession of a mound or hillock and bids defiance to his foes.

PUZZLE YOUR FRIENDS.

To divide an apple into several parts, without breaking the rind, pass a needle and thread under the rind of the apple which is easily done by putting the needle in again at the same hole.

THE TORPEDO IN WARFARE.

It was not until the American civil war of 1861 that any successful application of the torpedo to naval warfare took place.

THE GIANT BAMBOO.

Usually the bamboo grows to great size. Many species are twenty to thirty feet tall, while some are even seventy to a hundred feet in height.

THEY DIDN'T FIGHT.

It Was Only a Little Friendly Discussion That Excited Them. Two Spaniards were conversing earnestly, then excitedly, at last angrily. The young American woman who passed them looked with frightened eyes toward her Spanish guide.

James E. Martine of Plainfield, New Jersey, farmer orator, succeeded John Kenn as United States senator from New Jersey.

HOT DRINKS.

If Taken Above 100 Degrees They Injure the Stomach. Many people without realizing it are in the habit of drinking tea at such a high temperature.

THE SQUAW'S SHAWL.

It Must Be Just So to Suit Her Fanciful Taste. The Indian wears his blanket on the hottest summer days. His theory is that if it keeps out the cold in winter it will keep out the heat in summer.
