80 Young People

responded last week to our appeal for young women who wanted to prepare for business offices as stenographers and typewriters and bookkeepers.

We have still a few seats left in different classes, not more than twenty-five in each, but every seat with an earnest young man or woman because the pressure on us for young people trained for business is very strong.

New classes in both Pitman and Gregg Shorthand were started on Monday, January 16th, and arrangements made for a picnic in these classes by sailing to the Business Institute, 324 both places, or by coming to office in the Y. M. C. A. Building, corner College and South Ave., where we can talk the matter over.

You can enter our commercial course (Business Training, Penmanship, Rapid Calculation, Commercial Correspondence) at any time. You should be prompt with your application and come to enter next Monday.
