

JULIA MARLOWS AS LADY MACHETE.

that powerful, weird and inlense youth and inexperience to nursery hakespearean play "Macbeth." It is gambols. question which character in this it is a mistake to educate an only beth has been impersonated by as it is not absolutely necessary for a many eminent women as the other girl to go to a boarding schoot. She the roles. Although Miss Marlowe is dally. not great in the character, she disapnainted some of the croakers is her interpretation of Lady Macbeth. She thought by some to have been the is a rather senseless one. greatest Lady Macbeth of her time ! If this be true then Miss Mariowe has fallen below Janauschek, Modjeska, Ristori, Genevieve Ward, Elten Terry and Clara Morris. But possibly she surpassed the most recent Lady Mac beth seen in New York-Marie Booth Rausell, wife of Robert Manzell, who played Macbeth.

Of course in speaking of Lady Mac both one must always think of the you need a lot of looks-brilliant, over incomparable Siddons. None over ap powering looks and money, lots of it proached her it will be recalled by for the clothes such a name needs to Porhes Robertson's Macheth a tow wealth, but Anne should be a shy, de quisite handmade roses of silk, satin years ago. The last great Lady Mine beth was Charlotte Cushman. The tringedy was given on the occasion of her farewell appearance la this com tis. There may be some living when cold hearted cynic prate in poetry May Charlotte Cushman in the part in No. my dear it is not for a gypsy such New Orleans She was a mere girl as you. Nancy is the an me for you. when she played it then

The first. Macbeth seen in New and freshness ond a hans of Tork city was produced at the old bess. It is pretty enough too. John Street theater

Lady Mac beth, according to Miss Marlowe's conception, spars ber hus band on to the blackest of treason; and the foulest of murders and then dersus eptibilities of chickhool are in and consoling him

Shakespeareng scholars assert that this is not warranted by the text Me vertheless Miss Marione succeeded in making her conception of the tharacter plausible and at times highly pathetic.

What Wemen Are Doing. Princess Sturdza of Roumania ha effered to give the money necessary to countinue the publication of the French dition of Jus Suffragii, the official orthe of the International Woman Sufre alliance Mian Lilah Clarke of Portland, Ore will be the first woman to be graduatthe department of economics. Miss Erron Miller and Miss Ruth Merrick. beth in the Junior class, are working in the engineering department and have registered in the gas engine class. where practical phases of automobile study are taken up.

Mers. Mary S. Halladay of St. Louis is said to be the only woman railway president in the world. On the death of her husband a few years ago Mrs. Halladay became a member of the botted of directors of a small railroad in which he had a large amount of Nock of doubtful value. Mrs. Halladay ivestigated the railroad and was the means of making such changes in the mamagement that today this same week is said to be valued at more than a quarter of a million dollars

Miss Ellen Fitz Pendieton, who is looked upon as the possible secretor of Miss Hazard as president of Weller ley college, was graduated in that in stitution in the class of '86 and has in turn been instructor, professor and deam. She is a native of Westerly R. E., and took a three years' course in Newmon college, Cambridge, Eng and. During the administration of President Hazard thirteen new college buildings were opened, besides five so clety houses and additions to two nev dorraltories. There were also four departiments created, economics, English language, astronomy and hygiene and physical education:

A. 3. C. F.

Would Shoot Old Maids. The Woman's Homestead associa tion. a local organization of Massachuwitte, passed resolutions that the single womaen of that state who have passed their youth be either pensioned or shot The fidea is probably that the old maids Respirer places in the indivisiral i that men want to occupy.

Points Mothers

An only stild is liable to disadvantages that do not come the way of children brought up assong brothers. and staters. It is not easily that the child is in danger of being spolled and of growing seifish through having no playmate with whom to share bis or her toys sweets and so on but there is the lack of young healthy compan lonship to be reckoned with and this means much to the childs develop

If he or she tives only sub grown on people much of the sweetness of bild life will be lust, for, no matter how gay and bright parents may be. children require the companionship of children of their own age, with their own childlike ideas of fun and froise. There has been a revival this sessor, who will bring the right touch of may, Macbeth or Lady Macbeth, reer to a kindergurten at an early age and afterward to a gloci day school character has been by eminent men can finish her education after having covered that she can work better when and this season Julia Marlow and passed through an advanced day she is wearing overalls or pajamas Sothern are having great success with school by attending first class lectures than she can wen she is hampered.

What's in a Nazme!

sustained the trying part well, but in you stop to think what kind of name work in which the ordinary dress is tragic intensity and imperiousness of you were giving her to tive up to or something of a handicap and acts as will she did not compare or even ap to live down to, as the case may be? fetters. proach Charlotte Cushman, who is The old query, "What's in a name? There s a good deal in a name, aft er all ber of the Delineator.

"It is thanks to me you can owe me mono over the massuline attire you have a fair chance. To be Glaria spoiling a freek and bending to the breeze like a sheaf; of golden grain. That is the kind of name it is! It would make the most There is joy in the name of Nancy and freshows and a haps a for beauti

hever praise or blame 5 our children In the presence of strangers the ten strives to atone by granding, guiding, tured by so doing instat on strict obelience, but make the duty less trk some to the child by issuing the com mand only when absolutely accessary Be firm but mild in your authority never punishing childish faults as though they were very great offenses When however there is real cause for blame do not pass it oversand above all, never relent when ourse you have forbidden anything.

Children are not mere playthings therefore do not treet them as such On the other hand, sithough our little folks claim all our attention, they must not conclude that they are the masters whom everybody else has to obey Their turn to rule will come in due

The Night Nursez-v It must be clean. It must be very airv. The hardwood floor is best. Stained floors may be varnished. Floors at least must be easily Channals.

There's a washable rug before each

For lighting choose electricity Smelly kerosene lamps gas are taboord.

Gray-blue or gray-green, not dark. good for the walls. -Curtains (they are often necessary must be washed once a mouth at least some say every week.

Points to Remember It has been proved by experiment develop three times as fast as those who habitually drink tea or coffee. Ten and coffee stimulate the hear and the secreting action of the kid repeating to yourself optimistic auto neys. These effects cause them to be suggestions. Repetition is one of the unsultable beverages for children.

Raw vegetables encumbers, lettuce than those which are cooked. That i why they should not be given to chit dren.

so nutritious as bread and butter.

Training the Baby.

Bables are bables only stuck a little of your life. See to it that so far as while, and there is so much difference possible you banish the tawdry, the in their angleup. They have so many coarse and the garish from your sight things to learn. It is hard to have pa Surround yourself with objects of time and patience will be rewarded. | with regard to your choice of books.

READY FOR WORK.

Men's "Undress" as Women's Dress.

WEARING THE OVERALLS.

The up to date housewife has disby skirts, bence the fact that in many cases she has taken to wearing one or the other of these articles of men's. When you named your little girl did apparel when her duties call for house

One woman who niways puts up her skirts catch on the stepladder and that it is a simplicity that makes fathers Read, for instance, what Mrs. Gram now she always puts on pajamas for pocketbook datten out to an appre ercy Park writes in the January num—the work—If a caller comes in un ciable degree when the bill is sent in expectedly it is easy to throw on a kil- for the creation. The material is gausy that, at least, though ordinarily I de The illustration shows a very active and greens, and the undersily is of test micknames; that you are generally bousewife prepared to do a little silver tissue. The pretty rose General test micknames) that you are generally below stairs without tions are of slik and made especially often asked that any solution of i

> The Lure of Artificial Roses. The somber costumes of the winter

HOW MILADY WEARS HER POSIES.

wearing a large specimen in her hat another as a corsage flower and a third rose to complete the trilogy on the end of her scarf. The effect is most pleas ing when color values are understood.

What Suggestion Will Do. There is nothing that plays so impor that children who drink milk grow and tant a part in the daily life of men and women as does suggestion, says H. Ad dington Bruce in the Delineator. No matter how many setbacks come, keep tion. There is a great truth underly radishes: etc.—are more indigestible thinketh so is he." Not only the peo ing the familiar saving, "As a mar ple with whom you associate, but the books you read, the clothes you wear the pictures on your bedroom wall, the Biscuits of any kind are not nearly very wall paper liself, convey to you suggestions which have an influence in the making of your character, the shaping of your ideals, the determining EXPENSIVE SIMPLICITY.

The Party Frock That Looks Cheap, but Isn't.

Very sweet and simple looking is the agured net in lovely numbers of plinks for the gown.

Miss Taft's Fondness For Brown. collar. She has a beautiful golden aft lon is harmed. Mrs Toft likes the old fachtened . him a wife in the following words "A very fool is he that chooses for beauty principally. His eyes are witty, but his little thread of red and white."

Cheice of a Wife. up his opinion of the unwise choice of but only the skin near it.

band than "the little thread of red and oval of her face. white" which the old time divine condemns

When the Grapes Hang High. thing is lovely and the goose hangs heavy jawed your eyes grow smaller moment in fruit decorations when the to be effective.

Photo by American Press Association SILVER GRAPE HANGER

a table centerpiece.

Milady: Mirror

No woman out preserve her beauty unless she makes up her mind not to acquire certain mannerisms or to givthem up if she has already become slave to the tricks and babits that s manifestly mar her appearance.

The woman who is perpetuall frowning, whether from temper o from a mere babit of brooding con templation, will see her forebezid difigured by two upright lines which t time will become so indelibly fire disfigurement will spread to the check long, weighs but 140 pounds and yet ad the corners of the mouth, for a is a perfect working model of the ordiemotion is so destructive to beauty a nary trolley that we see on the streets continual outbursts of passionate rage every day it has motors, brakes and Therefore let every woman Eerp all equipments necessary to enable it continual guard over her emotions and to run by electricity on a circular track over her facial tricks if she wisthes to in the yard. And you may be sure Preserve her beauty.

Every woman should learn to rest it self of every few spare minutes for headlight was made out of a pocket this purpose. Let ber analyze the or dashlight. There is also a tiny fare of relaxation and practice it in the like those on big trolleys following manner

Hang the arms loosely at the side and then begin to move them slowly backward and forward from side to shake the bands loosely from the went over one of its paws. It howled wrists, and after this practice the most pitcously, and some farriers who same exercise with the legs and feet were at work in a shop close by came many hot baths tend to destroy beau of them, perceiving that the poor thing most serious accident by having her girl's party gown seen in the cut, but ty and advocates a tepid bath even was burt, took him up, dressed his day Exercise, she urges also, can b paw and wrapped it up, after which indulged in to the point of extreme he let him go. fatigue and taken in excess does much. The dog went home, where he remore harm than good.

> Doing Without Powder, How shall one avoid the use of pow abould be of general interest

To tell the truth, few women can get along without powder in some dog was playing in the street, when Pink and brown are the White Liouse form, and there is not the slightest ob proceed her it will be recalled by in the country i constantly uses it as a theme in her almple in composition. If the applica had his paw hurt and limped painful mure, sweet maid. Pale she should be and chiffen Milady of the picture is dresses. Her mother clings to pink thou is washed off at night and the fac-The president's daughter looks very always cleaned before retiring the attractive in a rough brown home-spin suit, the akirt a modified hobbie with skin smooth It is only when powder ample proportions for a graceful stride having lead and other injurious in and the coat semifitting and trianmed gredients are used habitually and per in dark brown selvet as to cults and mitted to remain on that the complex ernous gown built on brown measures. For when there is a decult results with four here of old rose and gold in prejudice against powder daily at the understolag, while the main ms plications of pronounced astringent terial is fliet almost completely cover sometimes act as substitutes by mer ed in arought designs of thick brown trailing the natural oil of the skin silk She Las a natty brown fur coat But in order to apply any such figuid and with it she wears a fur turban successfully a woman must study be with one big red rose on the right side face corefully and know which par player must utter that bird's note as If the hose is not greas pink more than any of the more mod it sometimes follows that the beekern bues, such as rose, shell and saim near it and the chin may be, while One of the state gowns of Mrs the outer edge of the cheeks and the must put his hands behind him until Taft is of heavy satin in peach blow, forehead are dry. A strong astringen another bird's name is mentioned embroidered in deeper shades of pink if put over those naturally dry section will simply act to give them a chapped his knoes. If when the hands are beappearance, because there is no oil in Jeremy Taylor very aptly succeed Therefore the nose is not to be treated those regions to require neutralizing

Gum a Destroyer.

The worst enemy we beauty spe soul is sensual. It is an ill band of af cimils bave to combat is the gun fection to tie two hearts together by a chewing habit. You may not believe These are indeed true sentiments, good looks, yet I can assure you that and the man is both unwise and unit does," said an expert to a New York that chewing gum destroys a woman's lucky who merely selects his wife be Sun reporter. "I had a young client cause she is a pretty girl. Prettiness who fell off in looks in spite of all i slone never yet made for happiness could do. One day I studied her face The girl who can be a true friend, a to discover the reason, and lessw tha devoted companion and a loving wife her law was getting square; there wa is worth a great deal more to her hus a heavy look that was destroying the

" 'Do you chew gum?' I asked. "She replied that she did, it helped her digestion and she liked the habit. "Well, stop it.' I said. "It is making To paraphrase the rhyme "Every your jaw square, and as your face get, without untying the handkerchief.

> "She stopped the gum chewing, and it did not really grow less, but he easily reach it and draw it through the cheeks got plumper and the squaremes was not so apparent."

Two Beauty Tips.

Pineapple juice is good for cleaninstains out of the hands. It should b of the hands and arms. well rubbed in, left for a few minutes and then theroughly washed with plenty of soda and warm water, Stout people should limit the amoun of potatoes and sugar they at, a these articles of food favor the deposi great evident enjoyment. Sometimes of fat underneath the skin. Dry toas: lean meat, stewed fruit and fish ar suitable foods in treating obesity, an rich, fat, sweet and greasy dishe ought to be avoided.

To Reduce Waist Measure Deep breathing will help to reduc

the waist measure and enlarge th bust. The stretching exercises, to: are splendid as waist depleters. Rais grapes hang high on a silver holder the arms high above the head; ther tience with them, but if mother can' beauty. Keep your clothes neat and made expressly for the purpose. It holding knees straight, try to touc who is going to? They must be taugh clean, but do not, as so many people to love prefix things and leave perish seem to do, regard them as your chief ranging the big, luscious bunches of erect; place hand on hips, bein from able things alone. It is a problem, but aim in life. Be especially soliciton bothouse grapes when they are used at waist as far as possible to the right

& Toy Teelley Car That ls Perfect in All Details.

There is little doubt that every youngster who hears of the good fortune of Lester Kneeland of Lynn, Mass., will that massage will not remove them envy that lucky boy. His father re Should these times be the outcome o cently completed for lester a trolley continual giving way to anger the car that is only all and a half feet to run by electricity on a circular track Lester runs it. The car is fitted to use she wishes to preserve her good tooks brakes are so finely adjusted that they two motors if necessary, while the Should she lead a very busy life she block the wheels when applied. The Story About Two Degs.

A large dog was playing in the road side Then open the fingers wide and a country village, and a carriage One beauty expert considers that to out to see what was the matter. One mained during some days, but at length, his paw becoming painful again, he returned to the man and holding it up, monned to show that it pained him. The man dressed it again, and the dog, after licking his hand to show his gratitude, returned to his home, where he soon grew well.

another dog met with a similar acci dent near the same spot. He too ly. The well dog took the lame one by the car and with much difficulty led him into the kind man's shop, where he had been so well doctored

The Bird Catcher

One is chosen to be bird catcher. He will have to invent a story about birds The other players each take the name of a bird, but must not choose the owl Then they clasp their hands on their knees and listen to the story the lift catcher tells. At the name of the bird chosen by any player that moving his bands from his knees When the owl is mentioned every one when they must again be classed on ing moved the bird catcher can catch hold of one the owner must pay a forfeit and become bird carrier. He then continues the story. When in the course of his story he says "all the birds in the air" all the players are to utter at the same time the cries of the different birds they represent. The parrot may break into the story at a pause. The mocking bird when "all the birds" are mentioned repeats the little word?

Trick With a Rose. Procure a rope the size of a clothes line and about twelve or fifteen feet long. Ask some one to the your wrists together with a hamikerchief; then get him to draw the rope through the arms and hold the two ends tightly. Bidhim stand as far away as the double ropes will permit. The performer is now to drop the rope from his arms

معزين

To accomplish it he must pull tighthigh." everything is right up to the The eyes must be set in an oval face It against the person holding the endsof the rope. This enables him to draw the rome well in between the wrists unthe jaw seemed to subside. Perhap til on slacking the rope the fingers can handkerchief until sufficient is through to permit one hand to slip through the noose of rope which is formed by this last movement. A slight pull from the assistant causes the rope to fall free Elephante as Swimmers. Elephants delight in abundance of water and enter it freely, often remaining in it for a long time and with they swim not only with the body but the head under water, the only part elevated above it being the extremity of the trunk.

The Little Brown Leaf. A little brown leaf as it fell to the ground Sighed: "Now what good can I be? My service is over, for summer is fled. My service is over, for summer is fied.

There's nothing to do but to cover my head Under snow. Ah, poor little me!" But it fell on a flower and kept it from frost

The whole long winter through Se that down on the ground as way up on the tree The little leaf spent its life cheerfully.