Out of School.

Within the next two weeks our Catholic schools and colleges will hold their commencement exercises and will send forth their flocks of graduates, to colleges and high schools to begin their life's battle with the world, the parochial schools prepare for the higher educational institutions.

It is a custom of the humorist and jocund editorial paragrapher to poke fun at "the sweet girl graduate" and the college lad who burns with desire to reform the world and all its people, but really there is no occasion to joke. Our young friends may be unsophisticated but their blood is red, their imagination unbridled, their morals clean, their whole beings uncontaminated by the world's rough touch.

Despite our wealth, our experience as men and women of the world, our acquired knowledge, who of us old ones would not wish to be a boy or a girl once more with capacity for work and enjoyment unimpaired? Truly, youth is the happy age or stage. It must not be forgotten too, that these boys and girls graduates are to be the future rulers of our republic, the fathers and mothers of the next generation. So be to their faults a little kind. Congratulate, rather than chide them.

A Good Start

Those in charge of the work of raising funds for St. Anne's Home for the Aged have done well up-to-date. Responses from the general public have been liberal and prompt. The attendance upon and receipts of the donation and dinner at Convention Hall on Tuesday were gratifying.

It is understood that there are returns to be made which will swell the grand total of the receipts to still larger sum than has been announced. This is a reason for congratulation and those who have worked so hard have reason to feel gratified.

Now that the example has been set, let the annual donation for the Home for the Aged be one worthy the cause.

The Catholic Federation, by a polite appeal to advertisers in "Tom Watson's Magazine" has put an effective quietus on that bigoted sheet.

The Catholic Universe thinks that "the politician is far wiser first and the law and principle afterward."

It is not a wise act to mortgage one's house to buy an automobile.

Pope Pius X is now 76 years old.

Catholic parents should look carefully into the ways and wherefores of the Boy Scouts before they permit their boys to join.

Baseball has succeeded racing as the sport of American Kings.

Why Find Fault?

It seems to be the habit of the press of the state to find fault with Governor Dix and the new State Administration. Either they do too much, or they do too little. If they prolong the legislative session, then they are blamed. If they shorten it up then they do not earn their salaries. If the Governor consults with his party leaders he is accused of subservience to the bosses. Does the Governor make an appointment displeasing to his party leaders, the press hints he is disrupting that party by his obstinacy.

It must be borne in mind that it has been sixteen years since the present men in power had charge of State Government. They gave much to learn and the leaders have to perfect an organization, a task which taxed their predecessors for sixteen years.

It is easy to criticize, to break down but it is difficult to reconstruct. Those who helped to place burdens of responsibility upon the shoulders of those in power should be lenient and give the new officials a chance. They have not done so badly, they are quite likely to do very well if they receive any sort of encouragement from press and public.

Not Informed

Secure in their own faith, at least feeling that they have inherited it and have not forsaken it, do not too many Catholics misunderstand the mental attitude of the non-Catholic faith, who oftentimes sneer at the faith and reviles its teachers and followers?

We must remember that non-Catholics never were inside a confessional and know naught of the Sacrament of Penance. Their theology, if so it may be called, does not recognize the Real Presence, hence they cannot understand our reverent attitude upon entering the house of God. They have been so brought up that they are unable to differentiate between prayer to statues and the stimulus to devotion which these statues are, hence they must not be judged too harshly for classing Catholics with the idolaters and pagans.

Nearly all non-Catholics are brought up to despise both the Catholic form of worship and those who practise it. Nine times out of ten their attitude toward Catholics is inherited and we should pity not blame them.

Theodore Roosevelt is a great peace advocate but he maintains that preparedness for war is the best and most practical adjunct to universal peace.

Now all the Catholic Directories are now to be published in New York city.

A few years ago Gaylord Wilshire was a much heralded Socialist. Now he is in England living high on proceeds of mining companies he promoted.

Bishop Hickey delivered the sermon at the mass held in Elmira to mark the opening of the 1911 Council of the Knights of Columbus.

Really, how much do you suppose it costs our non-Catholic proselytizers to seduce a few ignorant foreigners into their Protestant Sunday schools?

St. Vincent de Paul's society is to have charge of the "children's fresh air vacations" in Toronto. A capital idea.

Be charitable to your unfortunate brother. It will make you feel better.

Congratulations to the graduating classes of 1911 are now in order or will be shortly.

Now is a good time to subscribe to a Catholic newspaper.

Recent decisions of the United States Supreme court are not likely to reduce either the price of kerosene oil or tobacco.

Whenever our faith is maligned we should be ready to defend it. But this does not imply we should go about with chips on our shoulders.

Reno, Nevada, occupies a peculiarly malodorous fame as the "home of easy divorce."

T. P. O'Connor says American newspapers are all venal. He has another guess.

Twenty thousand idle Socialists in Milwaukee while Victor Berger luxuriates in Washington at $10,000 a year! How about it?

That "All Star Friars' Frolic" ought to be boycotted by Catholics as a rebuke to its suggestive billboard.

Thousands of little ones are now receiving their first holy communion. God bless them and keep them always in the faith!

It is a mark of disrespect to say the least, to leave the church before the priest is off the altar.

In the large classes graduating from our schools the teaching orders of nuns deserve great credit for their patient, persistent work.

An Awful Experience.
A native diver descended into the water to see whether one of the piers, then in course of construction, had set. While he was engaged in this work a great iron cylinder subsided a little, crushing his head between it and the masonry. When, on a signal being given, another diver came down he found his unfortunate comrade imprisoned under water without hope of escape. After a few moments of quite despair and harrowing uncertainty a speechless decision was arrived at, and the newcomer proceeded with chisel and hammer to knock off the unhappy companion's head at the wrist. The prisoner was thus liberated, but died soon after reaching the surface from the shock. Never, I think has an optimum water in his dream imagined a more pitiful spectacle of hopeless human suffering. "Travels in India"

Justifiable Protest.
"My wife is one of the unfortunates persons I know," began a Cedar avenue man, who tells long stories about his household affairs.

The Kangaroo's Kick.
When a big "old man" kangaroo stiffens his tail and converts it into a sort of revolving pivot bearing the whole weight of his body, leaving his tremendously powerful legs free for attack and defense, everybody who does not want to be ripped up or thrown in a heap for a considerable distance will give the marsupial a wide berth.

From Stuart, Neb., writes Mr. Joseph Hall, March 16, 1910: "My son was very ill from nervousness, could not sleep had to be watched all the time, as I was afraid he would hurt himself. I tried two doctors, who treated him for 6 weeks without any results. But after taking 10 bottles of Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic I can testify that my son is entirely cured, next God, I have to be thankful to the Tonic for the astonishing result." Not on Speaking Terms.
"Three dollars a minute," said the youth who had asked the long distance telephone rate between him and the lady fair.

Net Gully.
Mrs. Leeder-Norah, do you ever repeat anything you hear my husband and myself say to each other when we have a slight difference of opinion? Domestic—Th' saints forbid, ma'am.

What a Legacy.
"I hear your rich uncle is dead."
"Yes."
"What did he leave?"
"A widow we'd never heard of."
