

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

Oswin Bush, Detroit's Star Shortstop

Baseball experts here heard the plan to organize the Detroit Tigers as the leading shortstop of the American League. For many a season these boys have been in the place of the star. Last season they were wonderful stars, remaining in the lead and winning the pennant for the first time in years.

But the little question that has been asked is whether they will be able to do it again. Bush is the only one of those good boys that will be back in Detroit this year. He has been in the lead for the last two years and has been the star of the team.

The News

"What's all this about?" said Critter, looking at the news. "The big news is that the war is over and we're all going home." "What's that?" said the other. "The war is over and we're all going home." "What's that?" said the other. "The war is over and we're all going home."

"Why don't they let me see them?" said the man. "I'm reading Dr. Jones's book." "Why don't they let me see them?" said the man. "I'm reading Dr. Jones's book."

"What's the matter with you?" asked the man. "I'm not feeling well." "What's the matter with you?" asked the man. "I'm not feeling well."

"How does it feel?" asked the man. "It feels like a lead weight." "How does it feel?" asked the man. "It feels like a lead weight."

Evening That Keeps Out Sun, but Admits Stars

One objection to awnings is that they exclude a certain amount of air, and there are summer days when people want all the air there is. A Michigan woman has overcome this objection by designing a window blind that keeps out the sun, but lets in the breeze.

The Land of Anyhow

When you are in the land of Anyhow, you must be careful. The people there are very different from the people here. They are very kind and very generous, but they are also very strange.
