Safe Fourth

Those neighborhood ideas for Fourth of July celebrations are splendid, they furnish so much more celebration for a given sum...

Many Like Him?

We wonder if there are many in Rochester like the one described as a "toady-Catholic" as follows by a valued exchange:-

Even in hot weather, we advise attendance daily upon mass if at all possible.

Baseball is overshadowed just a bit by aviation meets. That is, in this city of Rochester.

The National Catholic Educational association meets are beginning to put the meets of the big non-Catholic educational association in the shade, even so far as real news interest is concerned.

Booker T. Washington is not a Catholic, is the answer to a query from an esteemed subscriber.

Ask your family whether they like the Catholic Journal. If they do, then you may rest assured we are making good. If there be any new feature you think should be added, any change that you think would benefit the paper, write us. Suggestions are always welcome whether they are such as can be put into operation or are not feasible. They do show an interest in the paper by its readers.

Four of the largest advertising patrons of Tom Watson's Jeffersonian magazine have withdrawn their patronage because of the Catholic Federation's exposure of Watson's rank bigotry.

The next important Catholic gathering will be that of the American Federation in Columbus, Ohio, in August.

The Sacred Heart Review thinks the man who "wastes his money" in subscribing to a Catholic paper is a plain ordinary "bone-head." Guess that's about right.

European Prices

Most American travelers on their first trips on the continent of Europe are astounded when upon the day of their departure from a hotel they are presented with their bill by the head waiter instead of by the landlord or by his chief clerk.

Sweet Mother Love

A man awoke one night with a toothache. He groaned, he turned and twisted, he howled, he sat up and lay down again.

National Purse

The Englishman carries gold, silver and copper loose in his trousers pocket, pulls out a handful of mixed coins and selects the one he needs.

See's Double Stomach

The bee has two distinct stomachs. In the first it stores away the honey it industriously gathers up from the flowers until such time as it is ready to yield it up.

What Nothing Is

If any man thinks that he can conceive well enough how there should be nothing, I will engage that what he means by nothing is as much something as anything that he ever thought of in his life.

A Partial Alibi

"She claims she has a perfect alibi." "What is her alibi?" "She says she can prove that at the very time the crime was committed her own little girl was brushing her hair."

Walking

"I know how people walk," said Willie to his grandmother. "They put one foot down and then it stay till it gets away behind, then do the same with the other foot, and keep on doing it."—Chicago News.

Quite Likely

"I wonder when the first surgical operation was performed." "I suppose it was in Adam's Eve. When he had his tail he must have broken something."—New York Press.

The Weather

Something is delicious, rain is refreshing, wind braces up, snow is exhilarating; there is really no such thing as bad weather—only different kinds of good weather.—John Hawks.

His Lesson

"But, you silly boy, if I married you with your means you couldn't even kiss me." "Perhaps with a few kisses I could kiss you."—Exchange.

Converts: An answer to the often-asked question, "What is to be the result of the Eucharistic Congress, in Montreal, so far as non-Catholics are concerned?" is given in part at least by his Grace Archbishop Broche. The matter is authority for the statement that four hundred conversions at least have taken place in the commercial capital of Canada since the Congress.
