A Wonderful Rochester Cure!
Mr. M. B. McMahon, Mgr. May 11, '11
Bureka Twentieth Century Dandruff
Cure and Hair Tonic Co.
Dear Sir—I feel compelled to issue
this statement of what your medicine has done for me. It has completely cured me. My hair was falling so fast that I was afraid to comb it. My wife's was equally as bad, but after one application, the hair ceased to fall, and one 50c bottle completely cured both my wife and myself.

Very Gratefully,

THE INDIANS' CHRISTMAS.

Little Redskins Not Slow to Get Acquainted With Santa.

From the time that Uncle Sam began to encourage the idea of schools for Indian children the teachers made much of Christmas, and the little redskins were quick to show interest in the Christmas tree.

The Christmas of the Brule Sioux Indians shows business management. In each village a committee of prominent braves is appointed, perhaps several weeks in advance of the momentous day, to make a canvass of the tribesmen and gather a fund to be expended in the purchase of a "heap big feast." The committee makes out a prospective menu as soon as the cash is in hand, and then, with true Yankee shrewdness, the specifications as to eatables are submitted to the various traders in the vicinity for bids, the contract for this odd undertaking in Christmas catering being awarded, of course, to the lowest bidder.

The Sioux Indians generally have a Krisis Kringle, a member of the tribe, who disguises himself for the occasion and makes speeches and gives presents.

A representative illustration of the Indian Christmas celebration in the southwest can be seen any year in Pueblo or San Felipe N. M. The holiday celebration is a curious mixture of Christian and pagan customs. The redskins there attend the mission church in the morning, feast at noon and later inaugurate a fantastic and ceremonial dance that continues for half a week.

PRESENTS FOR ROYALTY.

Quantity So Great That Housing Them is Serious Problem.

Were a royal personage to accept all the Christmas offerings of subjects and admirers, known and unknown, standing room in royal residences would soon be at a discount. Presents arrive at the British court from all parts of the world. A registered package from Vermont one Christmas was found to inclose a prize potato weighing 100 pounds. Another present was a nugget of pure gold found in the Klondike and valued at $200. It was subscribed for and sent by the inhabitants of Dawson City.

Not all gifts to royalty are returned. Where special permission is asked and obtained beforehand a present is accepted in the spirit in which it is offered.

The present most coveted by Roman Catholic royal ladies of Europe is the papal golden rose. The jewel, the first of which was presented by Pope Urban VI to Joanna of Sicily is a mimic plant of pure gold standing in a golden pot. The leaves are set with diamonds in imitation of dewdrops, and a palm leaf blessed by the pope accompanies the gift. ("Timothy's" Journal)

Christmas in the Country Places.
Christmas in the country places. There you see the rosy faces. There the joy, the world entranced. Joy that sees the world a dance. Fine air, fresh, the lifeblood, as we Christmas in the country places.

Glad enough to hear it humm
Waited long to see it comin'
There is where amazin' grace is
Christmas in the country places.

City has the good time, too
Yet the country calls to you
"Come it is you want to roam
In the frosty fields of 'home"
Hearty handshakes, friendly faces—
Christmas in the country places!

Fill the ample oak logs higher
Room for one more at the fire.
Show old tales of long ago—
Told 'em for us love's sake—
All the life's trouble, joy efface—
Christmas in the country places!

WHO IS SANTA CLAUST

A Query Prompting One of the Pretty Legends of St. Nicholas.

History says St. Nicholas, the patron saint of Christmas, was bishop of Myra, in Lycia, and that he died about 326.

Tradition fills in the meager details with a number of legends. Among his flock—so runs one—was a nobleman with three daughters. From being rich he became so poor there remained no way of obtaining food for the maidens, who, having no bread to eat, wept continually, while their father grew more and more desperate. St. Nicholas heard of the family's plight and, taking a handful of gold, he repaired to the nobleman's house one night while the maidens slept and the father sat alone weeping.

A cloud showed St. Nicholas an open window in the nobleman's home. So he threw in the gold, and it fell at the feet of the nobleman, who, when he found it, returned thanks and presented it to his eldest daughter as her wedding portion.

PAPA'S PART.

Mother is in desperation,
And so is sister Sue,
For Christmas celebration
Buying the presents due:
Ann is a frazzled maiden
Exhausted by shopping frays;
Tom, with his arms o'erladen,
Hangs to the strap and aways,
Lurching—his bundles (bother!)
Around the car he spits.
Everybody works but father,
He simply pays the bills!
—Lester Lestaire.

GET-RICH MAKING TOYS.

Demand For Novelties Affords Good Workmen Profitable Employment.

New designs in toys are as eagerly looked for by toymakers as the new designs of a Paris dressmaker. Some of the best artists make small fortunes by designing new toys. A notable case of this kind is that of Arnan d'Arbe, the eminent French black and white artist. His physicians had ordered him to take a rest. Partly to amuse himself and partly to entertain some children he began to whittle some little toys out of wood. Out of these grew his famous toys—showing King Edward bagging pheasants, Emperor William on a bear hunt, Carlos killing mountain sheep and President Roosevelt drawing a bead on a grizzly.

Paris is the only city that regularly holds toy exhibitions, and at these one may see every sort of toy made in the world. The United States keeps a permanent exhibition of the toys of all nations and times in the ethnological space in the national museum. From India, China, Africa, Alaska, Australia, from the remotest past down to the living present, these toys have been gathered.

THE SEASON FOR FACT.

Thoughtlessness in Yuletide Gifts Often Shatters Friendships.

Many a pleasant friendship has been broken by ignorance of good form in gift making. Many a social career has been nipped in the bud by a present ill chosen or wrongly sent.

If you are rich and have some friend who has lost her money be careful that your gift does not reflect your knowledge of her financial straits. Remember that somehow she still manages to buy the obviously necessary thing while her heart still hungers for the dainty the luxurious touches of life.

Again, there is the wealthy friend of your family to whom you brought letters of introduction when you came to town. She has not taken you into the bosom of her family but a cousin sits at her large and general-famous table, she has entertained you. Choose no gorgeous gift in such a case. Rather send her a beautiful flower on Christmas morning with a well worded greeting or the newest book about which her world is surely talking.

MERRY CHRISTMAS, BABY

Merry Christmas baby with life just begun
Fears of rosy footsteps birth-
mae they run
"Childhood yet beyond them proffers
fun, and play
Father on the shadows lie on far away

Sunlight shimmers o'er the morning skies
Heaven smiles before thee in thy mother's eyes
Laughing in her arms baby in that light divine
Love the sweetest life can give is
this moment thine
Helen Elliott in Leslie's Weekly

THEY ALL WORK FOR SANTA.

Fathers, Mothers, Grandparents and Children Who Make Toys

Though Santa Claus begins getting ready for the next Christmas the minute he unharnesses his reindeer, yet he never could make enough toys to go around if he did not have a lot of people to help him.

In Germany there are several villages where everybody works at toy making, not only the mothers, fathers and children, but even grandmothers and grandfathers. For generations these families have made toys—dolls, the soldiers, doll furniture, little wooden wagons and wooden animals of all kinds. In many homes the children begin helping in this work when they are so small they can hardly sit at the common working table. Often a whole family will earn only 60 cents a day.
