KATIE'S NERVE TONIC

Mr. H. J. Williams writes from Paris, Ark. Sept. 1, 1910. In 1908 my wife, who has been ill for three years with various ailments, three doctors treated her, but all their trials were without any benefit. Her strength was so low she could not get out of bed. I watched her all the time. We had her of all kinds of medicine, but she would not eat. I got a bottle of Katie's Nerve Tonic and made her eat it. In two days she was able to get out of bed. In ten days she was able to walk. In three weeks she was able to get about. In six weeks she was able to do all kinds of work. Katie's Nerve Tonic is a great medicine. It has cured my wife and many other people.
