St. Stephen's Church of Geneva Dedicated by Bishop Hickey Last Sunday

Geneva, Sept. 1.—To-day marked a bright page in the history of the Catholic Church in this city, when the new St. Stephen's Church was dedicated by Bishop Hickey. The ceremony was held at 10 o'clock, and was attended by a large number of the faithful. The church, designed by the Gothic Company of New York, is a masterpiece of architecture. The interior is finished with marble, and the altar is a work of art. The church is situated on a hillside, and offers a fine view of the city. The dedication was a grand affair, and the church is now open to the public.

The crowd that gathered for the ceremony was large, and the church was filled to capacity. Bishop Hickey presided over the ceremony, and gave a beautiful sermon. The church is a fine example of Gothic architecture, and is well worth a visit. The interior is finished with marble, and the altar is a work of art. The church is situated on a hillside, and offers a fine view of the city.
