Rochester ever since. Mr. Strouss received his early education at public school No. 10, graduated from the Rochester Free Academy, and began the study of law in the office of Geo. and Thomas Raines.

He remained in that office for three years, and then took a course in law at Cornell University, graduating from the College of Law in 1897 with a degree of LL. B.

He was appointed Transfer Tax Appraiser for Monroe County by Comptroller Marston B. Glynn.

Mr. Strouss was a member of several fraternal organizations and clubs, and has acted for several years as Treasurer of the Rochester Bar Association.

Mr. Strouss has frequently served on committees, and has been actively engaged in movements for the civic betterment of this city.

Mr. Strouss was born in this city in 1879 and has since resided here. He became a public school teacher, later entering the Rochester Free Academy, and after graduating from that institution he entered the University of Rochester.

Mr. Page graduated from the local university with the class of 1892, being made a member of the Phi Kappa fraternity for superior scholarship and won the Davis medal for oratorical ability.

He took up the study of the law and was admitted to the bar in the year following his graduation. He has since become a member of the firm of Chamberlain and Page with which he has been associated for 19 years.

While Mr. Page has not been active in politics of recent years he has always been a consistent Democrat and under Mayor George F. Warner was secretary of the municipal civil service commission, being appointed as a Democratic member by Mayor George A. Carnahan.

Mr. Page's practice has been in the Surrogate Court practice which with his recognized legal attainments especially fits him for the position for which he has been nominated.
