November.

November is commonly called and thought of as one of the gloomy months. Indian summer is usually over when November comes and so the autumn-tinted foilage has disappeared; the trees are stripped of their leafy covering; the wind takes on a more mournful wail; the air takes on added chilliness; and all nature seems to cry out that the icy winter season is at hand.

Recognizing this, the Church has set apart November as the month of all souls. During this month the masses are offered for the souls in Purgatory and for the deceased friends of those who request special remembrance. November is then the month in which we are called upon, especially, to pray for the dead. If we have friends on the other side, let us pray for them in this month when, all the world over, priests and people are imploring divine pity and succor for the poor souls.

And so, while November may may typify sorrow, it also spells joy because the poor souls were never known to forget those who pray for them on earth. Let us, therefore, not neglect to join our prayers this month. We all have loved ones who need our prayers. If not, then it is our duty to pray for those who have none, or who are forgotten. We will not mind these prayers, those for whom they are offered will not forget them either.

Slander

One of the most despicable characters to be found anywhere is the slanderer, he who traduces his neighbor behind his back and when he is not present to defend himself. It matters not what the sex of the slanderer is. Men and women alike are equally guilty and should be equally condemned.

Even if what you say about the person slandered be true, nine times out of ten, the slanderer is legally liable, especially if it can be proved that the slander was circulated wilfully and with malice, to injure the person talked about. It is not necessary to discuss the moral liability.
But if the slander circulated is false, how much worse! Slander and slanderers do an untold damage in any community.

Let Us Have Peace

Election is over. The spellbinders have been traveling up and down the land, each assuring his fellow-men that the country will go to the pow-wows instantly if the "ism" he is preaching is not written into the organic law of the country or the candidate he is backing is not chosen for president or governor or some other office in the gift of the American people. The suffragists have gone up and down the land beseeching the voters to so amend the constitution that the females be permitted to join their brothers in the election both and vote for public officers.

For the last six months we have had politics talked at us and to us. Politics stared at us from the first and every other page of our morning and afternoon papers. Our boys and girls, discussed politics. If we went to the store to purchase goods, a "straw ballot box" was thrust under our noses.

Let us hope that politics will disappear as a steady diet for while now that the election of 1912 is a thing of the past. Let-us be sane, normal, decent, law-abiding citizens once more. Let business resume its wonted course.

In short, let us have peace!

Now, Let It Stop!

We have heard a great deal in the last few months about the prevalence of bigotry among candidates for public office. We trust every bigot who ran for office last Tuesday was defeated and roundly at that. If any bigots were elected, we shall soon know it and also will know how to act.

Now let us hope that bigotry will retire from the center of the stage since that issue cannot affect public office for a year or so, at least. Let us hope that the circulation of that vile weekly, from the West will fall off as it should.

However, election should and will, we are sure, put a stop to the effort to bar from the mails all publications which transgress the regulation against obscenity and morality. No such publication should go through the mails and we, as Catholics and members of the Holy Name Society, should be in the lead of the crusade to see that this is done.

The Election.

As a result of Tuesday's election, the democrats will control the national and state governments in all branches. Governor Woodrow Wilson received the greatest number of electoral votes ever given a presidential candidate. William Sulzer and Martin H. Glynn will become governor and lieutenant-governor of New York state and many states hitherto republican have swung into the democratic column.

Most of the political revolution seems chargeable to the bolt from President Taft of former President Theodore Roosevelt, who organized the Progressive party which had the effect of cutting the old republican party in two while the democrats, apparently held their full party strength.

Whether the progressives will now seek to capture the republican organization or to perpetuate their organization as a permanent third party remains to be seen. If they adopt the latter course, democratic control is assured for a generation, in all likelihood.

Locally, the Catholic Journal extends congratulations to Frank J. Hughes upon his election as county purchasing agent to August Pappert upon re-election to the assembly, and to Thomas B.
Dunn upon election to represent the Thirty-eighth New York district in Congress. William A.
Buckley made a gallant fight for election as senator but the fortunes of war were against him.
To successful candidates, we wish a pleasant official career, defeated candidates we extend condolences and remind them that but one can win.

November!

Pray for the Poor souls!

Let us not forget to pray for our deceased friends and relatives this month.

Did you, or did you not lose your vote on Tuesday?

If there were no "downs" in the world, there would be no joy in getting "up". And there is some philosophy in that.

If we are true to the dictates of our own conscience, we cannot go far astray.

Pretty soon it will be "Bishop Hanna!"

Now is the time to show your appreciation of the Catholic press by subscribing for and advertising in the Catholic Journal.

The better Catholic you are, the better American citizen you are.

The Catholic who calls himself such and neglects the Sacraments, not only does damage to himself but he cannot calculate the damage he does to others by the scandal he gives.

Rochester is a pretty clean city and Chief of Police Quigley is largely responsible for this gratifying condition.

Pity the poor Orangeman! He will have to stand home rule whether he will or not, else become a real rebel which the Or-angeman lacks nerve to do.

If ever Schrank, who shot Colonel Roosevelt were a Catholic, it appears he has not practised his religion in years so he is not a Catholic no matter what he may be called.

The Guardians of Liberty say the Knights of Columbus are trying to capture the government.
The Knights have 300,000 members, the Guardians claim a million. Surely the Guardians have no reason to be afraid?

Says Mgr. Benson: "Make a rule of life - a rule how you spend the day. And keep it. And go on keeping it."

"The Guardians of Bigotry" is what the Catholic Columbian calls them.

A Special Sale at $19.50. Suits at $23.50.

Here is a suit opportunity that comes once in a long while. First we may explain that we do not carry any suits made by what is known as factory or contract labor. Every suit we sell is made by the best men tailors. This means quite a little to the woman who wants her suit to fit well and give satisfactory service. A cheaply made suit cannot do this. The suits we are offering at $23.50 are those that are regularly sold at $28 to $35. They are made of the best grades of all-wool materials, lined with guaranteed satin or peau de cygne. Among them are plain tailored as well as the more dressy models in black, navy, brown and mixtures. The size range includes those for girls and women. We know we have the best suit values in Rochester. We wish you to know it also. This special suit offering is made for the purpose of getting acquainted.
