Judging from the interest that is being manifested in the Bazaar to be held during the entire week of Thanksgiving, a handsome sum will certainly be realized. Almost everyone in the parish is working in one way or another to swell the proceeds, which will be devoted to the fund for the new church. A number of very prettily decorated booths, in which articles of all kinds will be sold, will be noticed on either side of the auditorium as people enter the building. The entire hall below will be used for the serving of dinners. A different committee will have charge each evening, prepared to serve a thousand meals. Between 4,000 and 5,000 of these dinner tickets are already in circulation and more are being called for each day. The names of those in charge of the different committees will be announced later. During the past week a beautiful piano was donated by the Duffy-Powers Co. It is expected that about $1,000 will be realized from this donation alone. A Bazaar Journal will be printed, and one thousand copies distributed each evening. This paper will contain all the features in connection with the bazaar. Mr. J. A. Kragg was appointed general manager of the entire affair at a meeting held by the men of the parish. The building will be beautifully decorated and illuminated, and the committees in charge will be prepared to handle the vast concourse that is expected to attend each evening.

During the past week car parties were given by Mrs. D. T. McLean at the Pinnacle Club, and by Mrs. P. Groover at her residence, 786 University Ave. Also a musical under the direction of Mrs. E. M. Weidert at the Knights of Columbus hall. All of these affairs were very successful.
