ST. MICHAEL'S

Sunday at the 7.30 o'clock mass the girls of the Christian Doctrine Class will receive holy communion.
The requiem masses for this week were for Anna Hehnlein.
The funeral of Leonard Reinhardt took place Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

St. Mary's Church.

The boys' choir sang for the first time at the midnight mass Christmas and deserve a great deal of praise for their successful efforts. Much credit is due to Prof. Haberer and the Sisters who had the boys in training.

Mr. Raymond J. Brown of Pearl St., who has been attending the Georgetown University, at Washington, D. C., is home for the holidays.

Rev. Simon FitzSimons assisted at the dedication of the new Blessed Sacrament church last Sunday morning and Rev. Geo. McCall assisted in the chanting at Vespers in the evening.

St. Bridget's.

The midnight mass was offered for the deceased members of the Cullen family and the 10.30 was offered for the deceased members of Katherine Earley's family.

The Holy Name Society will receive holy communion in a body two weeks from last Sunday.

On Christmas day a special collection was taken up at all the masses.

St. Francis Xavier.

The Utopian-Dramatic Club is preparing to present its second annual offering at St. Francis Xavier's Hall, Bay St., Monday and Tuesday evenings, January 13th and 14th. The proceeds will be used for the new church. The play is entitled "A Modern Annias," a farcical comedy of spirit and dash. Rehearsals are in progress under the direction of Edward F. Hettig.

The Utopian Dramatic Club is composed of George F. McGrath, Edward C. Roland, Carl Walker, Paul Stevens, Louise Nelbach, Mabel I. Kress, Clara Bechtold and Anna Sautter, all of whom are amateur players of considerable experience. The executive staff consists of Edward C. Roland, manager; Edward F. Hettig, director; and Joseph Reif, property man.

Inmaculate Conception.

Rev. Wm. J. Connaughton will celebrate his first high mass in this church on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Besides the priests of the parish several others will assist at the ceremony. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Stephen McPadden of Geneva.

There will be services in our church, Tuesday night, December 31st at 7.45 in thanksgiving for blessings received during the old year and invoking divine benediction on the parishioners during the coming year.

There was a large attendance at the midnight mass and all the other masses on Christmas.

Arrangements are being made for a series of luncheons for the different bands of the Rosary Society during the coming year and likewise for reunion for the members of the Holy Name Society.

The members of the Holy Name Society will receive holy communion in a body at the 7 o'clock mass on the 2nd Sunday of January.

St. Peter and Paul.

Solemn high mass was celebrated at midnight and on Christmas day.

A high mass was celebrated on Thursday morning for the deceased members of the Mason family. Benediction was held after mass.

Saturday the feast of the Holy Innocents, the high mass was celebrated for the school children, after the mass the children paid their visit to the crib.

A three week's mission will begin in this church on Sunday, Jan. 5th. The first week will be for the woman, the 2nd for the men and the third for non-Catholics.

Installation of officers will take place on Thursday evening, Jan. 2nd., for the members of Br. 62, L. C. B. A. Luncheon will be served

Low Rates of Tuition--for First Year Only.
Large, Handsome Rooms      Beautiful Furnishings

The school has been incorporated by the Regents of the University of the State of New York, by Special Charter granted December 12, 1912.

It is owned by a corporation, the stockholders in which are leading business men of Rochester; and

The affairs of the school are controlled by a board of seven trustees composed of shareholders in the corporation.

L. L. Williams, who has been elected president and manager has had long and successful experience in commercial school teaching and management, as president of the Rochester Business University and the Williams & Rogers Rochester Business Institute.

His partner, E. E. Rogers, and he, were publishers of the Williams & Rogers commercial text books, which have a larger use in all schools in which the commercial branches are taught than any other series in print.

It is designed that this institution shall take Front Rank among American Commercial Schools.

The Book of The L. L. Williams Rochester Commercial School, outlining the advantages of the institution, will be mailed to any address, or copies may be obtained at the office of the institution, 27 Church St., on and after Jan. 6.
