Holy Name Society Held Meeting

St. Mary's branch of the Holy Name Society last Sunday evening began work for 1913. Rev. Simon Fitzsimons, spiritual director, announced these officers for the year: Pres., Dr. John J. Reedy; sec., Thomas F. Moore; treas., Michael Davin. After the regular devotional exercises in the church, adjournment to St. Mary's Hall was taken; where a brief business session was held. Father Fitzsimons explained plans for active social service work in the parish on the part of the members. President Reedy then gave a short and enjoyable talk on "Prevention." The doctors nowadays, he said, were actually taking money out of their own pockets in that they were teaching how to prevent rather than to cure disease. Prevention of accident, prevention of disease, prevention of crime, in short, prevention was the order of the day rather than cure.

The next meeting of St. Mary's society will be on the second Sunday in March. Members will receive communion at the 7.30 o'clock mass and in the evening the monthly meeting will be held, to be addressed by one of the Catholic clergy, whose name will be announced later.
